2 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

3 Plaintiff Anita Trejo (“Plaintiff”) submits this memorandum in support of 4 his unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Motion”).
5 The proposed settlement reached by Plaintiff and Defendants Lyneer Staffing 6 Solutions, LLC, Ciera Staffing, LLC, Employers HR, LLC, and Yusen Logistics 7 (Americas), Inc. (collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”) (Plaintiff and 8 Defendants are referred to collectively as the “Parties”), as memorialized in the 9 Parties’ Joint Stipulation for Class Action Settlement and Release and Addendum 10 (“Settlement Agreement”), is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and thus warrant final 11 approval, for the reasons provided herein.

12 I. INTRODUCTION

13 The Parties¹ hereto have reached a settlement in this matter, which is 14 subject to the final approval of this Court. Plaintiff requests that the Court grant 15 final approval of the Parties’ Settlement Agreement, pursuant to Rule 23, 16 subdivision (e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The non-reversionary 17 settlement amount of six hundred twenty-six thousand seven hundred five dollars 18 and forty-five cents ($626,705.45) is “fair, reasonable, and adequate” within the 19 meaning of Rule 23(e). The Class includes two thousand five hundred sixty-one 20 (2,561) Class Members, comprised of all non-exempt, hourly workers who were 21 assigned by Lyneer Staffing Solutions, LLC, Ciera Staffing, LLC, and Employers 22 HR, LLC to perform work for Yusen Logistics (America), Inc. in California at any 23 time from July 1, 2017 through and including August 25, 2019 (“Class 24 Member(s)” or “Settlement Class Member(s)”) and (the “Class Period”). Class 25 Members stand to recover substantial and immediate monetary benefits under the 26 settlement with an average estimated Gross Recovery of one hundred forty-one 27

28 ¹ All capitalized terms appearing in this Memorandum that are not defined herein have the same meanings assigned to them as provided in the Parties’ Settlement Agreement. (Odenbreit Dec., Ex. A)

1 dollars and thirty-one cents ($141.31) per Settlement Class Member. (Declaration
2 of Taylor Mitzner (“Mitzner Dec.”), ¶14.)

3 The settlement is in line with the strength of Class Members’ claims given 4 the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation, including 5 the risks of establishing liability, proving damages at trial and on appeal, and the 6 risks of securing and maintaining class action status throughout the trial and on 7 appeal. (See Churchill Village, L.L.C. v. General Electric (9th Cir. 2004) 361 F.3d 8 566, 575–76 (citing Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 9 1026). It is uncertain whether Plaintiff would have ultimately been able to certify 10 and maintain the case as a class action, and to have prevailed on liability for the 11 Class through summary judgment, at trial, and on appeal. Weighing the risks, 12 time, and expense of continued litigation against the substantial benefits afforded 13 now by the proposed settlement, Class Counsel represents that the proposed 14 settlement is in the best interest of the Class.

15 In connection with requesting final settlement approval, Plaintiff also 16 requests that the Court: (1) confirm as final the certification of the Class under 17 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, rule 23, 28 U.S.C.A.(a) and 23(b)(3); (2) 18 confirm as final the appointment of Plaintiff as the class representative of the 19 Class; and (3) enter the proposed final approval order and enter judgment.
20 Plaintiff also requests the Court award Class Counsel’s requested attorney’s fees 21 and costs in a separate motion filed concurrently herewith. Finally, while the 22 settlement is not contingent upon any service payment, Plaintiff requests the Court 23 award a service payment to compensate Plaintiff for his service to and risks taken 24 on behalf of the Class, as provided on a separate motion filed concurrently 25 herewith.

26 II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

27 A. The Parties

28 Defendant LYNEER STAFFING SOLUTIONS, LLC is a Delaware

1 business entity, which is registered and conducting business in the State of 2 California and provides temporary staffing services throughout California.
3 Defendant CIERA STAFFING, LLC is a Delaware business entity, which was 4 registered and conducted business in the State of California and provides 5 temporary staffing services throughout California. Defendant EMPLOYERS HR 6 LLC is a Florida business entity, which is registered and conducting business in 7 the State of California and provides temporary staffing and/or payroll services
8 throughout California. Defendant YUSEN LOGISTICS (AMERICAS) INC. is a 9 New York corporation, which is registered and conducting business in the State of 10 California and provides third party logistics services throughout California.

11 Plaintiff and the Class Members were all non-exempt, hourly workers who 12 were assigned by Lyneer Staffing Solutions, LLC, Ciera Staffing, LLC, and 13 Employers HR, LLC to perform work for Yusen Logistics (America), Inc. in 14 California at any time from July 1, 2017 through and including August 25, 2019.

15 B. The Class and Representative Action

16 On March 27, 2019, Plaintiff, a former employee of Defendants, filed the 17 Class Action in the Superior Court of California for the County of Los Angeles as 18 a proposed class action on behalf of all current and former non-exempt California 19 employees of Defendants, during the period of March 27, 2019 through the date of 20 final judgment. Plaintiff alleged that Defendants (1) failed to pay all wages, 21 including minimum wages and overtime wages; (2) failed to provide accurate 22 itemized wage statements; (3) failed to pay wages upon termination of 23 employment; and (4) engaged in unfair business practices. Plaintiff sought 24 recovery under the California Labor Code, the applicable Industrial Welfare 25 Commission Wage Order, and the California Business & Professions Code. On 26 May 13, 2019 Defendant Yusen Logistics (Americas), Inc. filed a notice of 27 removal, removing the lawsuit titled Anita Trejo v. Lyneer Staffing Solutions, 28 LLC, Ciera Staffing, LLC, Employers HR, LLC, and Yusen Logistics (Americas),

1 Inc. Case No. 19STCV10411 to the United States District Court for the Central 2 District of California pursuant to 1332(d), 1367(a), 1441(a), 1441(b), 1446, and 3 1453. On May 30, 2020, Plaintiff filed the PAGA Action in the Superior Court of 4 California for the County of Los Angeles Private Attorneys General Act 5 (“PAGA”). Defendants deny all of the allegations in the complaint and the 6 theories of liability upon which this case was asserted. Defendants asserted 7 affirmative defenses to each of the causes of action asserted therein”).
8 (Declaration of Katherine J. Odenbreit (“Odenbreit Dec.”) ¶ 4.)

9 C. Mediation and Settlement

10 On August 26, 2020, the Parties engaged in private mediation with mediator
11 Steve Serratore, a mediator highly-experienced in the type of wage and hour 12 allegations brought in this matter by Plaintiff. While the case did not settle at 13 mediation on August 26, 2020, the Parties continued with good faith arm-length 14 settlement negotiations through Mr. Serratore and ultimately the Parties reached 15 an agreement and memorialized the agreement in a Joint Stipulation of Class 16 Action Settlement and Release (“Settlement Agreement” or “Agreement”) that 17 was fully executed on April 22, 2021. Following the Court’s June 1, 2021, Order 18 to correct the references to exhibits delineated in the Amended Proposed Order 19 and address the amount of time class members have to object to any award of fees
20 and costs, the Parties entered into a subsequent Joint Stipulation of Class Action 21 Settlement and Release with the Addendum and Amended Class Notice amended 22 pursuant to the Court’s order. At all times, the negotiations leading to the 23 Settlement Agreement have been adversarial, non-collusive, and at arm’s length.
24 (Odenbreit Dec. ¶ 11.)

25 D. Significant Discovery and Investigation Informally Conducted by 26 the Parties

27 The Parties engaged in formal and informal discovery as a means of 28 minimizing litigation costs, as well as fostering a cooperative dynamic ahead of

1 the substantive negotiations. Over the course of the litigation, Class Counsel 2 conducted extensive investigation into the claims asserted in this case. That 3 investigation included the review, analysis and sampling of numerous records and 4 other documents, and research and evaluation of claims and defenses. Plaintiff 5 secured information and documentation concerning the claims set forth in the 6 litigation, such as Defendants' policies and procedures regarding the payment of 7 wages, meal and rest breaks, as well as information regarding the number of 8 putative class members and the mix of current versus former employees, 9 Defendants' written policies and handbook, the wage rates in effect, and length of 10 employment for the average putative class member. In turn, Plaintiff retained her 11 own expert to review and analyze these records to further Plaintiff's evaluation of 12 the Plaintiff's class and PAGA claims and evaluation of settlement value.
13 (Odenbreit Dec. ¶ 5.)

14 Using the above information and records, Plaintiff and her counsel were 15 able to reasonably assess liability on the part of Defendant and the resulting value 16 of damages, paving the way for the proposed settlement terms. (Odenbreit Dec.
17 ¶ 6.) Accordingly, Plaintiff and her counsel determined that the agreed-upon 18 initial sum of four hundred eighty thousand dollars ($480,000.00) was a 19 reasonable and appropriate gross settlement value for this instant action. The 20 Parties contemplated a potential increase in Class Members and to account for the 21 potential increase and ensure this settlement was reasonable the Parties agreed to 22 an Elevator Clause in the Settlement Agreement (¶1.20) wherein the Gross
23 Settlement Amount ("GSA") has increased to six hundred twenty-six thousand 24 seven hundred five dollars and forty-five cents ($626,705.45) to account for the 25 increase in class size. Wherein the class size did increase from two thousand 26 sixty-one (2,061) to two thousand five hundred sixty-one (2,561) Class Members.
27 Wherein the number of work weeks did increase from nineteen thousand nine 28 hundred forty-two (19,942) to twenty-six thousand thirty-seven (26,037).

1 Accordingly, based on the contemplated increase in class size and or work weeks 2 and the corresponding increase in the GSA, Class Counsel maintains that this 3 settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable (Odenbreit Dec. ¶¶ 14-15.)

4 E. Preliminary Approval of the Settlement

5 On June 15, 2021, following supplemental briefings and a telephonic 6 hearing, the Court granted the unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of the 7 Class Action Settlement. (Dkt. No. 61.) Therein, the Court determined that the 8 Settlement Agreement is “fair, just, and reasonable and, therefore, meet the 9 requirements for preliminary approval . . .” (Dkt. No. 61.) The Court further found 10 that, “for settlement purposes only, the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil 11 Procedure 23, subdivision (a) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, subdivision 12 (b)(3) are satisfied. (Dkt. No. 61.) The Court conditionally certified, for settlement 13 purposes only, a “Class” consisting of the following:

14 [A]ll non-exempt, hourly workers who were assigned by Lyneer Staffing 15 Solutions, LLC, Ciera Staffing, LLC, and Employers HR, LLC to perform 16 work for Yusen Logistics (Americas), Inc. in California at any time from July 1, 2017 to August 25, 2019 (the “Class Period”). (Dkt. No. 61.)

17 III. SUMMARY OF SETTLEMENT TERMS

18 A. Monetary Terms

19 In consideration for the releases of all claims at issue, Defendants agree to 20 pay six hundred twenty-six thousand seven hundred five dollars and forty-five 21 cents ($626,705.45) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”), excluding Defendants’ side 22 of payroll taxes (which Defendants will pay separately), as a full and complete 23 settlement of all claims arising from the action by the Class. The Gross Settlement 24 Amount shall be allocated as follows:

- 25 (1) Settlement administration costs to Phoenix Class Action
 26 Administrators shall not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars
 27 ($15,000.00) (Odenbreit Dec., ¶ 12, Ex. A, section 1.3; 28 Mitzner Dec., ¶ 16, Ex. C.);

- 1 (2) A requested one-third or thirty-three and one-third percent 2 (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount or two hundred 3 eight thousand nine hundred one dollars and eighty-two cents 4 ($208,901.82), and Class Counsel originally estimated the 5 litigation costs to be sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000.00).
6 Attorneys' actual costs in the amount of thirteen thousand 7 three hundred ninety-nine dollars and ninety-one cents 8 ($13,399.91) are requested by Class Counsel to be paid from 9 the GSA. The remaining amount of two thousand six hundred 10 dollars and nine cents ($2,600.09) will become part of the Net 11 Settlement Fund for distribution to Settlement Class Members;
- 12 (3) A requested Enhancement Payment for Plaintiff as Class 13 Representative in the amount of seven thousand five hundred 14 dollars ($7,500.00);
- 15 (4) Twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) from the Gross
16 Settlement Amount allocated to the settlement of claims 17 brought under the PAGA, of which a payment of seventy five 18 percent (75%) or fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) will be 19 made to the LWDA for enforcement of labor laws and 20 education of employers. The remaining twenty five percent 21 (25%) or five thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) will be 22 distributed to PAGA Members in accordance with the terms of 23 the Settlement.

24 The Parties further agreed that the Gross Settlement Amount is non-25 reversionary. As such, one hundred percent (100%) the Net Settlement Amount 26 will be paid to Settlement Class Members without the need to submit a claim.

27 B. The Settlement Class and Class Period

28 The Settlement contemplates a Class certified for settlement purposes

1 comprising of “[A]ll non-exempt, hourly workers who were assigned by Lyneer 2 Staffing Solutions, LLC, Ciera Staffing, LLC, and Employers HR, LLC to 3 perform work for Yusen Logistics (Americas), Inc. in California at any time from 4 July 1, 2017 to August 25, 2019. The Court granted preliminary approval of the 5 Settlement, including the definition of the Class and Class Period as defined 6 herein, on June 15, 2021. (Dkt. No. 61.)

7 C. The Settlement Distribution Formula

8 The Net Settlement Amount shall be apportioned among Settlement Class
9 Members based on each of their respective number of Compensable Work Weeks 10 worked during the Class Period. Defendants will calculate the Compensable Work 11 Weeks for each Settlement Class Member. The Settlement Administrator will 12 calculate a Payment Ratio from the Net Settlement Amount for each Settlement 13 Class Member by dividing the respective Compensable Work Weeks by the total 14 Compensable Work Weeks for all Settlement Class Members. Each Settlement
15 Class Member’s Payment Ratio will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement 16 Amount to determine each Individual Settlement Payment. (Odenbreit Dec., Ex.
17 A, sections 1.10 and 3.21-3.22.)

18 Based on the estimated Net Settlement Amount of three hundred sixty-four 19 thousand three hundred three dollars and sixty-three cents ($366,903.72) the 20 average will be one hundred forty-one dollars and thirty-one cents ($141.31).
21 (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 14.) This recovery on behalf of Class Members is well in excess 22 of amounts that have been approved on the low end of the range of wage and hour 23 settlements in California state and federal courts. (See, e.g., Sorenson v. PetSmart, 24 Inc., No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (E.D. Cal.) (average net recovery of 25 approximately $60); Lim v. Victoria’s Secret Stores, Inc., No. 04CC00213 26 (Orange County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $35); Gomez 27 v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., No. BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of 28 approximately $20); Delgado v. New Albertson’s, Inc., No. SACV08-806 DOC-RBNx (CD. Cal.) (average net recovery of approximately $45.)

1 D. The Class Release

2 As of the full funding of the Gross Settlement Fund, each Participating 3 Class Member, on behalf of himself or herself and his or her heirs and assigns, 4 releases Defendants from the following claims for the entire Class Period: all 5 claims in the Actions, as well as any and all claims (known or unknown) that were 6 asserted or could have been asserted based on the facts pled in the Actions 7 (including those alleged in Plaintiff’s Letters to the LWDA), or that arise out of 8 the Actions, including, without limitation, claims that Defendants failed to provide 9 meal periods; failed to provide rest periods; failed to pay hourly wages; rounded 10 time entries to deprive Class Members of wages; required Class Members to work 11 “off the clock”; required Class Members to arrive to work early without 12 compensation; failed to pay minimum wage; failed to pay overtime compensation; 13 failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and failed to pay all wages 14 due to discharged and quitting employees. The released claims include but are not 15 limited to claims brought under California Labor Code sections 201-203, 204, 16 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 2698 et seq., the applicable IWC
17 Wage Order, and Section 17200 of the California Business and Professions Code.
18 Such claims include claims for wages, statutory penalties, civil penalties, or other 19 relief under the California Labor Code and any other related state or municipal 20 law, relief from unfair competition under California Business and Professions 21 Code section 17200 et seq.; attorneys’ fees and costs; and interest, and waives the 22 protection of California Civil Code section 1542 with respect to such claims.
(Odenbreit Dec., Ex. A, section 1.35.)

23 The releases provided in the Settlement Agreement are directly related to 24 Plaintiff’s claims and are therefore appropriate. See International Union of 25 Operating Engineers-Employers Const. International Union of Operating 26 Engineers-Employers Const. Industry Pension, Welfare and Training Trust Funds
27 v. Karr (9th Cir. 1993) 994 F.2d 1426, 1430 (“res judicata bars not only all claims 28 that were actually litigated, but also all claims that ‘could have been asserted’ in

1 the prior action”).

2 IV. THE NOTICE PROCESS

3 A. Notification to the Class

4 On June 15, 2021, the Court appointed Phoenix Class Action
5 Administrators (“Phoenix”) as the Settlement Administrator pursuant to the terms
6 of the Settlement Agreement and carry out the Settlement according to the terms 7 of the Settlement Agreement. (Dkt. No. 61.) February 4, 2022, Phoenix mailed the 8 Notice Packet via U.S. first class mail to all 2,561 Class Members on the Class
9 List. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 6, Ex. A.)

10 As of March 4, 2022, one hundred fifty-five (155) Notice Packets have 11 been returned to Phoenix. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 7.) One (1) Notice Packet was returned 12 with a forwarding address and promptly re-mailed. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 7.) For the 13 one hundred fifty-four (154) Notice Packets returned without a forwarding 14 address, Phoenix attempted to locate a current mailing address using TransUnion 15 TLOxp, one of the most comprehensive address databases available for skip 16 tracing. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 7.) Of the one hundred fifty-four (154) Notice Packets 17 that were skip traced, one hundred fifty-one (154) updated addresses were 18 obtained and the Notice Packet was promptly re-mailed to those Class Members 19 via first class mail. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 7.) As of March 4, 2022, three (3) Notice 20 Packets are considered undeliverable as an updated address could not be obtained 21 via skip tracing. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 8.) On February 25, 2022, discrepancies were 22 discovered in the original Notice Packet due to the change in the gross settlement 23 payment. Specifically, the Gross Settlement Amount was not updated at the end 24 of the Notice to reflect the escalator increase and the website for viewing the court 25 documents was not included in the Notice. Phoenix mailed a postcard with the 26 corrections to the Class Members on March 1, 2022. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 6, Ex. B).

27 B. Request for Exclusion, Objections, and Disputes

28 The deadline for Class Members to submit an Opt-Out as provided in the 1 Notice was April 5, 2022. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 10) As of March 4, 2022, Phoenix has 2 received a total of five (5) timely Opt-Outs. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 10.)

3 The deadline for Class Members to submit an Objection to the Settlement 4 as provided in the Notice was April 5, 2022. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 11) Phoenix 5 received zero (0) Objections to the Settlement. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 11.) Finally, 6 Phoenix did not receive any disputes from Class Members. (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 12.)

7 C. Total Participating Class Members

8 Plaintiff’s Counsel will file a declaration from the Settlement Administrator 9 regarding the administration of the Class Notice, number of opt-outs, and 10 objections, if any, by May 9, 2022.

11 V. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND 12 ADEQUATE

13 A. Legal Standards

14 Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that “claims, 15 issues, or defenses of a certified class may be settled, voluntarily dismissed, or 16 compromised only with the court’s approval. Fed. Rules Civ. Proc., rule 23, 28
17 U.S.C.A.(e). The requirements of Rule 23(e) set forth the procedures for approval 18 of class action settlements. First, the court must direct notice in a reasonable 19 manner to all Class Members who would be bound by the settlement. Fed. Rules 20 Civ. Proc., rule 23, 28 U.S.C.A.(e)(1). Class Members should be given the 21 opportunity to opt-out of the settlement and to object to the settlement. Fed. Rules 22 Civ. Proc., rule 23, 28 U.S.C.A.(e)(4)-(5). A court may only approve a binding 23 settlement after a hearing, and on finding that the settlement is fair, reasonable, 24 and adequate. Fed. Rules Civ. Proc., rule 23, 28 U.S.C.A.(e)(2).

25 A court must engage in a two-step process to approve a proposed class 26 action settlement. First, the court must determine whether the proposed settlement 27 deserves preliminary approval. (National Rural Telecommunications Cooperative 28 v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 525.) This step has already

1 been completed here, as the Court preliminarily approved the settlement on April 2 6, 2021. (See Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, 3 ECF Dkt. No. 61.)

4 Second, after notice is given to Class Members, a court must determine 5 whether final approval is warranted. (National Rural Telecommunications 6 Cooperative, supra, 221 F.R.D. at p. 525.) To grant final approval, the court must 7 find that the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (See Staton v.
8 Boeing Co. (9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 959 (citing Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 9 p. 1026).) In making this determination, the court may consider any or all of the 10 following factors:

- 11 (1) the strength of the plaintiffs' case; (2) the risk, expense, 12 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of 13 maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (4) the 14 amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery 15 completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience 16 and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

17 Churchill Village, L.L.C., supra, 361 F.3d at p. 575; Officers for Justice v. Civil 18 Service Com'n of City and County of San Francisco (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 19 625; Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at p. 1026. This list is not exhaustive, and “[t]he 20 relative degree of importance to be attached to any particular factor will depend 21 upon and be dictated by the nature of the claim(s) advanced, the type(s) of relief 22 sought, and the unique facts and circumstances presented by each individual 23 case.” Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at p. 625. Where a settlement is 24 reached prior to formal class certification, courts also look for signs of collusion 25 or other conflicts of interest. (See In re Bluetooth Headset Products Liability 26 Litigation (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 946–47.)

27 Under recent amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, district 28 courts must also consider a list of factors delineated in Rule 23(e)(2), which bear

1 similarities to the Ninth Circuit’s longstanding factors and considerations:

2 (2) Approval of the Proposal. If the proposal would bind Class 3 Members, the court may approve it only after a hearing and only on 4 finding that it is fair, reasonable, and adequate after considering 5 whether:

6 (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately 7 represented the class;

8 (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length;

9 (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into 10 account:

11 (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal;

12 (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of 13 distributing relief to the class, including the method of 14 processing class-member claims;

15 (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, 16 including timing of payment; and 17 (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 18 23(e)(3); and

19 (D) the proposal treats Class Members equitably relative to each 20 other.

21 The Advisory Committee recognizes that federal “[c]ourts have generated 22 lists of factors” to decide the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of a 23 settlement, and that “each circuit has developed its own vocabulary for expressing 24 these concerns.” Fed. Rules Civ. Proc., rule 23, 28 U.S.C.A.(e)(2) Advisory 25 Committee’s Notes to 2018 Amendments. In recognizing these, the Advisory 26 Committee explained that it did not intend to “displace any factor [used by federal 27 courts], but rather to focus the court and the lawyers on the core concerns of 28 procedure and substance that should guide the decision whether to approve the proposal.” Id. As such, to the extent possible, the Court should apply the factors listed in Rule 23(e)(2) through the lens of the Ninth Circuit’s factors and existing relevant precedent. The Court should also take heed of the Advisory Committee’s warning not to let “[t]he sheer number of factors ... distract both the court and the parties from the central concerns that bear on review under Rule 23(e)(2).” (Id.)

Despite the importance of fairness, the Court must also be mindful of the

1 Ninth Circuit’s policy favoring settlement, particularly in class actions. (See, e.g., 2 Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at p. 625 (“[V]oluntary conciliation and 3 settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in 4 complex class action litigation”).) While balancing all of these interests, the 5 Court’s inquiry is ultimately limited “to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned 6 judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or 7 collusion between, the negotiating parties.” (Ibid.) “It is the settlement taken as a 8 whole, rather than the individual component parts, that must be examined for 9 overall fairness.” (Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at p. 1026.) “Settlement is the 10 offspring of compromise; the question ... is not whether the final product could be 11 prettier, smarter or snazzier, but whether it is fair, adequate and free from 12 collusion.” (Id. at p. 1027.)

13 B. Final Confirmation of Class Certification is Appropriate

14 The Court preliminarily certified the Class for settlement purposes under 15 Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, appointed Plaintiff as the 16 representative for the Class, and appointed Plaintiff’s attorneys as Class Counsel.
17 (Dkt. No. 61.) The Court found, for purposes of settlement, that the Class meets 18 all of the requirements under Rule 23(a) and Rule 23(b)(3) to maintain this Action 19 as a class action. The deadline for opting out of, or objecting to, the Settlement 20 Agreement is April 5, 2022.

21 For these reasons, and for the reasons set forth in Plaintiff’s Motion for 22 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (Dkt. No. 52), the Court should 23 confirm the certification of this action as a settlement class action and the 24 appointment of Plaintiff as the Class Representative.

1 C. Final Settlement Approval is Appropriate as the Settlement
2 Agreement is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate

3 1. The Settlement is the Product of Arms' Length
4 Negotiations

5 As discussed more extensively in the Parties' Motion for Preliminary 6 Approval of Class Action Settlement (Dkt. No. 52), as well as in Plaintiff's 7 Motion for Attorney's Fees ("Fees Motion") concurrently filed herewith, (1) Class
8 Counsel are highly experienced in class action wage and hour litigation; (2) 9 Plaintiff and Defendant conducted significant discovery, investigation, and motion 10 practice that allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently in negotiating and 11 recommending the settlement; and, (3) the Parties arrived at the settlement 12 through arms-length bargaining involving competent and experienced counsel, 13 and only after a full day of mediation with an experienced mediator. (See 14 Rodriguez v. West Publishing Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 965 ("We put a 15 good deal of stock in the product of an arms-length, non-collusive, negotiated 16 resolution, and have never prescribed a particular formula by which that outcome 17 must be tested.") (citations omitted); In re Zynga Inc. Securities Litigation (N.D.
18 Cal., Oct. 27, 2015, No. 12-CV-04007-JSC) 2015 WL 6471171, at *9 (holding 19 that the parties' use of mediator and the fact that significant discovery had been 20 conducted "support the conclusion that the Plaintiff was appropriately informed in 21 negotiating a settlement"); Harris v. Vector Marketing Corp. (N.D. Cal., Apr. 29, 22 2011, No. C-08-5198 EMC) 2011 WL 1627973, at *8 (noting that the parties' use 23 of a mediator "suggests that the parties reached the settlement in a procedurally 24 sound manner and that it was not the result of collusion or bad faith by the parties 25 or counsel.")

26 Finally, none of the "subtle signs of collusion" that the Ninth Circuit has 27 warned of are present here. (See e.g. In re Bluetooth Headset Products Liability 28 Litigation, supra, 654 F.3d at p. 947.) Class Members will be receiving monetary

1 distribution commensurate with their pro rata share of the Gross Settlement 2 Amount, and based upon the number of Work Weeks they have worked for 3 Defendants. (Odenbreit Dec., Ex. A, section 3.21.) Further, Class Counsel will be 4 applying for a percentage of the common fund fee award in an amount not to 5 exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount to compensate them for the 6 services they have rendered on behalf of the Settlement Class Members. (See 7 generally, Motion for Attorneys’ Fees and Costs.) The award of attorneys’ fees is 8 separate from the approval of the Settlement, and neither Plaintiff nor Class 9 Counsel may cancel or terminate the Settlement based on this Court’s or any 10 appellate court’s ruling with respect to attorneys’ fees. Moreover, there is no 11 indication of a “clear sailing” arrangement, or an arrangement for unawarded fees 12 to revert to Defendants rather than the Class Members. (Odenbreit Dec., Ex. A, 13 section 1.20.) The Settlement is not a claims-made settlement. It is an all-in, non-14 reversionary settlement. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, no 15 Defendants, Releasee, or any other person or entity who, or which, paid any 16 portion of the Settlement shall have any right to the return of the Gross Settlement 17 Amount or any portion thereof for any reason whatsoever. As such, this factor 18 weighs in favor of final approval.

19 2. The Costs and Risks of Further Litigation Favor Approval 20 of the Settlement

21 The Court must “balance the continuing risks of litigation (including the 22 strengths and weaknesses of the Plaintiff’s case), with the benefits afforded to 23 members of the Class, and the immediacy and certainty of a substantial recovery.” 24 (Velazquez v. International Marine and Industrial Applicators, LLC (S.D. Cal., 25 Feb. 9, 2018, No. 16CV494-MMA (NLS)) 2018 WL 828199, at *4.)

26 Plaintiff is convinced of the strengths of his claims. However, Defendants 27 are equally adamant about the strength of its defenses. Plaintiff’s claims and 28 Defendants’ defenses give rise to a number of critical, disputed factual and legal

1 issues that go to the core of Plaintiff's claims and theories of liability and, by 2 extension, to Plaintiff's entitlement to recover damages and penalties, and/or the 3 proper measure of damages.

4 As is set forth in greater detail in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary 5 Approval, supplemental briefing and the Declarations filed in support thereof 6 (Dkt. Nos. 52, 53-1 through 53-6), while this is a strong case for class certification 7 and for maintaining class status through trial, there is a risk that Plaintiff and the 8 Class would not prevail on the merits should this case proceed to trial. At the very 9 least, litigating these issues would require additional costly and complicated 10 discovery, summary judgment practice, and, in all likelihood, trial. Whether 11 Plaintiff would prevail remains uncertain, and appeals would almost certainly 12 follow any ruling by this Court.

13 By contrast, the Settlement provides excellent recoveries to class members 14 now without that uncertainty and delay. In Class Counsel's extensive experience 15 litigating similar cases, Class Counsel understands and appreciates the risks and 16 uncertainties facing the claims of Plaintiff and the Class, which weigh in favor of 17 settlement approval. Whatever the strength of the claims, Plaintiff nonetheless 18 face numerous obstacles to recovery, including likely challenges to the use of 19 representative testimony and expert witnesses to establish class-wide liability and 20 aggregate damages, challenges to Plaintiff's methodology for calculating damages 21 and penalties, and having to defeat Defendants' defenses. It is especially true here 22 where Defendants deny liability, and when a party continues to deny liability, 23 there is an inherent risk in continuing litigation. In Thieriot v. Celtic Ins. Co., 2011
24 WL 1522385 at *5 (N.D. Cal. April 21, 2011), the district court approved a 25 settlement agreement in which the defendant specifically denied liability, noting 26 that such denial of liability illustrated the risk to continued litigation. See also 27 Mora v. Harley-Davidson Credit Corp. (E.D. Cal., Jan. 3, 2014, No. 1:08-CV-28 01453-BAM) 2014 WL 29743, at *4 (granting final approval to settlement

1 agreement where defendant denied any liability); Cf. Greko v. Diesel U.S.A., Inc.
2 (N.D. Cal., Apr. 26, 2013, No. 10-CV-02576 NC) 2013 WL 1789602, at *4
3 (“[E]ven with a strong case, litigation entails expense.”)

4 Further, despite the suitability of this matter for class treatment, the 5 litigation regarding class certification would also have been expensive and time-6 consuming. Assuming the Court certified a class action for trial, Defendants could 7 have appealed from a class certification order, which might have delayed the 8 proceedings considerably and been very expensive. Additionally, if this case had 9 proceeded to trial, the time and expenses associated with trial preparation would 10 have been considerable. A class action trial in this case would be manageable, but 11 it would also be complex, expensive, and extremely time-consuming. Even if 12 Plaintiff obtained a favorable verdict and judgment on her claims, Plaintiff and the 13 Class would face additional expenses and delay if, as is likely, Defendants were to 14 appeal. Taken together, these considerations support approval of the settlement.

15 3. The Amount of the Settlement Favors Approval

16 The Court must weigh the risk to Plaintiff against the value of the 17 Settlement. (Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at p. 625.) The Settlement 18 provides for a $626,705.45 Gross Settlement Amount, and no less than 19 $366,903.72 for the Net Settlement Amount once the Administration costs, 20 litigation costs requested, attorneys’ fees requested, enhancement award 21 requested, and LWDA’s portion of the PAGA allocation have been deducted.
22 (Mitzner Dec., ¶ 13.) Class Counsel request attorney’s fees of no more than one-23 third of the Gross Settlement Amount, or two hundred eight thousand nine 24 hundred one dollars and eighty-two cents ($208,901.82). Class Counsel also seek 25 reimbursement of thirteen thousand three hundred ninety-nine dollars and ninety-26 one cents ($13,399.91) in litigation expenses incurred by Class Counsel.

27 As stated in the Declaration of Katherine J. Odenbreit in support of the 28 Motion for Preliminary Approval (Dkt. No. 53, ¶¶ 6-25), it is estimated that the 1 reasonable value for all claims is approximately two million one hundred eighty-2 two thousand nine hundred twenty-four dollars and fifty-one cent ($2,182,924.51).

3 Given the increase in class size and workweeks, the adjusted estimated reasonable 4 value would be approximately $2,706,826.39. The Gross Settlement Amount of 5 six hundred twenty-six thousand seven hundred five dollars and forty-five cents 6 ($626,705.45) still represents approximately 22% of the reasonable value of the 7 case which was found by the Court at preliminary approval to be a fair and 8 reasonable recovery. (DKT. 53 Odenbreit Dec., ¶ 23.) The Parties contemplated a 9 potential increase in Class Members and to account for the potential increase and 10 ensure this settlement was reasonable the Parties agreed to an Escalator Clause in 11 the Settlement Agreement (Odenbreit Dec. Ex. A, ¶1.20) wherein the Gross
12 Settlement Amount (“GSA”) has increased to six hundred twenty-six thousand 13 seven hundred five dollars and forty-five cents ($626,705.45) to account for the 14 increase in class size. Wherein the class size did increase from two thousand 15 sixty-one (2,061) to two thousand five hundred sixty-one (2,561) Class Members.
16 Wherein the number of work weeks did increase from nineteen thousand nine 17 hundred forty-two (19,942) to twenty-six thousand thirty-seven (26,037).
18 (Odenbreit Dec., ¶ 15, Ex. A, section 1.20.) Accordingly, based on the 19 contemplated increase in class size and the corresponding increase in the Gross 20 Settlement Value, Class Counsel maintains that this settlement is fair, adequate, 21 and reasonable. (Odenbreit Dec., ¶ 15.)

22 The Settlement is substantial, especially as its adequacy must be judged as 23 “a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes [...] Naturally, the 24 agreement reached normally embodies a compromise; in exchange for the saving 25 of cost and elimination of risk, the Parties each give up something they might 26 have won had they proceeded with litigation[.]” Officers for Justice, supra, 688 27 F.2d at p. 624 (citation omitted). Accordingly, the Settlement is not to be judged 28 against a speculative measure of what might have been achieved. Linney v.

1 Cellular Alaska Partnership (9th Cir. 1998) 151 F.3d 1234, 1242. Courts have 2 routinely determined that class settlements, like the one reached here, are, 3 reasonable even where Plaintiff recovers only a portion of their total potential 4 recovery. (See e.g. Behrens v. Wometco Enterprises, Inc. (S.D. Fla. 1988) 118 5 F.R.D. 534, 542 “[T]he fact that a proposed settlement amounts to only a fraction 6 of the potential recovery does not mean the settlement is unfair or inadequate.”) 7 Indeed, “[a] settlement can be satisfying even if it amounts to a hundredth or even 8 - a thousandth of a single percent of the potential recovery.” (Ibid.; see also City of 9 Detroit v. Grinnell Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1972) 356 F.Supp. 1380, 1386; Ma v.
10 Covidien Holding, Inc. (C.D. Cal., Jan. 31, 2014, No. SACV 12-02161-DOC) 11 2014 WL 360196, at *5 (finding a settlement worth 9.1% of the total value of the 12 action “within the range of reasonableness”); Balderas v. Massage Envy 13 Franchising, LLC (N.D. Cal., July 21, 2014, No. 12-CV-06327 NC) 2014 WL 14 3610945, at *5 (granting preliminary approval of a net settlement amount 15 representing 5% of the projected maximum recovery at trial). In addition, the 16 Court should consider that the Settlement provides for payment to the Class now, 17 rather than a speculative payment many years down the road. See City of Detroit, 18 supra, 495 F.2d at p. 463.

19 Therefore, the six hundred twenty-six thousand seven hundred five dollars 20 and forty-five cents ($626,705.45) Gross Settlement Amount is well within the 21 range of reasonableness, and this factor cuts in favor of final approval.

22 4. The Settlement Provides for Equal Treatment of Class 23 Members

24 The settlement proposed by the Parties reflects no significant indication of 25 preferential treatment. As described in the Proposed Notice:

26 The Claims Administrator will calculate each Settlement Class
27 Member’s pro-rata share of the Settlement as follows: The Claims 28 Administrator will calculate the number of total Compensable Work Weeks for each Settlement Class Member. Work Weeks will be

1 calculated according to records and information provided by 2 Defendants. For employees eligible for a share under the California
3 Labor Code’s Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Lab. Code, § 4 2698 et seq.) (“PAGA”), the Claims Administrator will also calculate 5 the employee’s share of the PAGA Allocation based on records and 6 information provided by Defendants on eligible employees’ Pay 7 Periods. Settlement Awards shall be subject to applicable withholding 8 taxes. Defendants’ share of payroll taxes arising from the Settlement 9 Awards will not be deducted from the Gross Settlement Fund.

10 See, e.g., Altamirano v. Shaw Industries, Inc. (N.D. Cal., July 24, 2015, No.
11 13-CV-00939-HSG) 2015 WL 4512372, at *8 (finding no preferential treatment 12 because the settlement “compensates class members in a manner generally 13 proportionate to the harm they suffered on account of [the] alleged misconduct”).
14 As the settlement proposed by the Parties reflects no significant indication of 15 preferential treatment, this factor cuts in favor of final approval.

18 Plaintiff will file a supplemental declaration by Phoenix’s representative 19 following the administration of the Notice by May 9, 2022. To-date, Plaintiff is 20 unaware of any objections. “[T]he absence of any objections to the Settlement 21 Agreement among Class Members supports final approval.” In re Aftermarket 22 Automotive Lighting Products Antitrust Litigation (C.D. Cal., Jan. 10, 2014, No.
23 09 MDL 2007-GW(PJWX)) 2014 WL 12591624, at *3. Even in cases where 24 objections are made, it is recognized that a small number of objections indicates a 25 favorable class reaction. See National Rural Telecommunications Cooperative, 26 supra, 221 F.R.D. at p. 526 (holding that “in the absence of a large number of 27 objections to a proposed class action settlement, settlement actions are favorable 28 to the class members.”); Atlas v. Accredited Home Lenders Holding Co. (S.D.
Cal., Nov. 4, 2009, No. 07-CV-00488-H (CAB)) 2009 WL 3698393, at *4 (recognizing that only two class members submitted objections to the plan of 1 allocation in deciding to approve the plan of allocation); see also Mandujano v.

2 Basic Vegetable Products, Inc. (9th Cir. 1976) 541 F.2d 832, 837.

3 6. Additional Rule 23(e) Factors

4 The judgment of experienced counsel regarding the settlement is entitled to 5 great weight. (Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at p. 1026; Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D.
6 Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 622; Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility (N.D. Cal.
7 1980) 87 F.R.D. 15, 18.) Reliance on such recommendations is premised on the 8 fact that “parties represented by competent counsel are better positioned than 9 courts to produce a settlement that fairly reflects each party’s expected outcome in 10 litigation.” (Rodriguez, supra, 563 F.3d at p. 967 (quoting In re Pacific 11 Enterprises Securities Litigation (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378).) Here, counsel 12 for both Parties endorse the Settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable.
13 Plaintiff’s Counsel and Defendants’ counsel each have extensive experience in 14 prosecuting and litigating class action wage and hour suits like this one.

15 Further, as discussed in the contemporaneously filed Motion for 16 Enhancement Payment, Attorneys’ Fees, and Reimbursement of Costs and 17 Expenses, the proposed attorneys’ fees of one-third or thirty-three and one-third 18 percent (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount to be reasonable in light of the 19 risk involved in this litigation, the work performed by Class Counsel, and the fact 20 that there were no objections to this amount. Moreover, approval of the requested 21 attorneys’ fees is separate from approval of the Settlement, and the Settlement 22 may not be terminated based on a ruling regarding attorneys’ fees. (Odenbreit 23 Dec., Ex. A; see also Plaintiff’s Fees Motion.) The fact that qualified and well-24 informed counsel endorse the Settlement as being fair, reasonable, and adequate 25 heavily favors this Court’s approval of the Settlement.

26 VI. CONCLUSION

27 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the claims 28 that meet the requirements of final approval pursuant to Rule 23, subdivision (e)

1 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Parties thereby request that the Court 2 (1) grant final approval of the Settlement, and (2) grant final class certification and 3 class action designation of the Settlement.
