This matter is before the Court on Plaintiffs' unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement based on a Settlement Agreement in the above-titled case, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The Motion, having been fully considered by the Court, and it appearing to the Court upon preliminary examination that the Settlement set forth herein is within the range of reasonableness, and that a hearing should and will be held after notice to the Class to confirm that the Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and to determine whether a judgment should be entered in this action thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- This Order hereby incorporates by reference the definitions in the Settlement
 Agreement, and all terms used herein shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Settlement Agreement.
- 2. The Court preliminarily approves the Settlement Agreement and finds that it is within the range of reasonableness as to the Class and Defendants, and is the product of good faith, arm's length negotiations between the Parties.
- 3. The Court certifies, for the purposes of this Settlement, a provisional class defined as: all part-time faculty members who were classified as Contributing Faculty or paid according to the Faculty Compensation Schedule and who are or have been employed by Defendants in California during the Class Period, which is from January 25, 2017 to May 31, 2022.
- 4. The Court finds that for the purposes of settlement, Plaintiffs have established in the moving papers and supporting declarations the requirements for certification of a provisional settlement class pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d).
- 5. The Court appoints and designates Phoenix Settlement Administrators as Settlement Administrator. The Court further preliminarily approves the payment of the settlement administration costs as provided in the Settlement Agreement.
- 6. The Court appoints and designates Plaintiffs Cheryl Burleigh and Chad Harris as the Class Representatives, and the law firms HammondLaw, P.C. and The Jhaveri-Weeks Firm, P.C. as Class Counsel.

- 7. The Court preliminarily approves payment from the Gross Settlement Amount of the Service Awards to Plaintiffs and payment of attorneys' fees and costs to Class Counsel as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, with final approval of those awards to be determined following the class notice process and the submission of a Motion for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Class Representatives' Service Awards.
- 8. The Court approves the Class Notice, and finds that the method of disseminating the Class Notice meets the requirements of due process and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances.
- 9. Notice shall be provided to the Class Members in the following manner: Within 10 business days of entry of this Order, Defendants shall provide the Class Data List to the Settlement Administrator. Within 25 calendar days of entry of this Order, the Settlement Administrator will send the Class Notice in the form of Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement ("Class Notice") to the Class by first class mail.
- 10. Class Members will have sixty (60) calendar days from the date of the first mailing to submit requests for exclusion or objections. Unless a Class Member submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion as provided in the Settlement Agreement, he or she will automatically become a Settlement Class Member. Class Members who wish to be excluded from the Settlement must do so in writing and must include the Class Member's full name, signature, address, and last four digits of his or her social security number, as well as the case name and number and a clear statement that he or she seeks to be excluded from the Settlement. Class Members who wish to object to the Settlement must do so in writing and must include the Class Member's full name, address, and last four digits of his or her social security number, as well as the case name and number and a clear statement of the basis for his or her objection. All exclusions and objections must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator and postmarked no later than the Response Deadline. Counsel for the Parties shall file any responses to any objections at the time the Motion for Final Approval is filed.
