

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF ORANGE
SARINANA, ET AL. V. SHELFBOT CO., CASE NO. 30-2021-01207546-CU-OE-CXC

A court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

ATTENTION: IF YOU HAVE BEEN EMPLOYED BY SHELFBOT CO., AS A NON-EXEMPT HOURLY PAID EMPLOYEE IN CALIFORNIA AT ANY TIME DURING THE PERIOD BEGINNING MARCH 9, 2020, THROUGH MAY 15, 2022, YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A SHARE OF A PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

Shelfbot Co.'s records show that, between March 9, 2020 through May 15, 2022 you worked <<weeks worked>> as a non-exempt employee. Based on these records, your estimated minimum settlement payment is <<estimated amount>>.

TO UNDERSTAND YOUR RIGHTS, READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

- A proposed class action settlement (the “Settlement”) has been reached between Plaintiffs Wendy Sarinana and Shelbi McFarland (“Plaintiffs”), on behalf of themselves and the below-defined Settlement Class, and Defendant Shelfbot Co. (“Defendant”).
- The Settlement resolves a class action lawsuit (the “Action”) about Plaintiffs’ allegations that Defendant failed to provide meal periods, failed to provide rest periods, failed to pay minimum wage, failed to pay overtime, failed to pay all wages at termination, failed to pay waiting time penalties, failed to provide accurate wage statements, engaged in unfair business practices, and is liable for civil penalties. Defendant denies all liability to Settlement Class Members, asserts that it properly and timely compensated employees for all wages owed, including minimum wages, overtime wages, and final wages; properly and timely provided accurate itemized wage statements; properly and timely provided meal and rest periods; fully complied with all applicable wage and hour laws; has not engaged in any unfair business practices; and has entered into the Settlement solely for purposes of resolving this dispute.
- The Settlement provides for settlement payments based on the number of weeks you worked while employed by Defendant, in a non-exempt position, between March 9, 2020, through May 15, 2022.

Your estimated minimum settlement payment and covered weeks worked during the relevant period are printed on the notice below.

OVERVIEW OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS UNDER THE SETTLEMENT
DO NOTHING	You will automatically receive a settlement payment in exchange for which, whether or not you cash or deposit the payment, you will be bound by all terms of the Settlement and any Final Judgment entered in this Action if the Settlement receives final approval by the Court, and you will give up your rights to be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant involving the same or similar legal claims as the ones in this Action, based on the facts alleged in this Action. You will be mailed a settlement check at the address where this notice was mailed (unless you timely provide a forwarding address to the Settlement Administrator).
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE CLASS	Submit a request for exclusion post marked no later than December 16, 2022. This is the only way for you to be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant involving the same or similar legal claims as the ones in this Action. If you submit a Request for Exclusion, you will not receive a class settlement payment and you will not be bound by the terms of the Settlement. If you request to be excluded from the Settlement, you will still receive a PAGA individual payment if you worked during the PAGA Period (June 8, 2020, through September 22, 2022) also referred to as the “PAGA Class Period” and shall be bound by the PAGA release.
OBJECT	If you wish to object to the Settlement, you must submit a written Objection and any supporting papers to the Settlement Administrator. The Objection must be postmarked no later than December 16, 2022. You may also attend the Final Approval Hearing, with or without an attorney, to voice your objections (whether you had previously mailed a written objection or not).

GO TO THE HEARING

You may also attend the Final Approval Hearing, with or without an attorney, to voice your objections, if any (whether you had previously mailed a written objection or not). You can still submit a claim form. If the Court approves the Settlement, you will be bound by it.

- These rights and options, and how to exercise them, are explained in more detail in this notice.
- The Court handling this Action still has to decide whether to grant final approval of the Settlement. Settlement payments will only be issued if the Court grants final approval of the Settlement.
- Additional information regarding the Settlement is available through the Settlement Administrator or Class Counsel, whose contact information is provided in this notice.

BASIC INFORMATION1. Why Did I Get This Notice?

Defendant Shelfbot Co.'s records show that you are, or have been, employed by it as a non-exempt employee at some point in California during the period from March 9, 2020 through May 15, 2022. This notice explains the Action, the Settlement, and your legal rights.

The lawsuit is known as Sarinana et al. v. Shelfbot Co., and is pending in the Superior Court of California for the County of Orange, Case No. 19STCV35497 (the "Action"). Wendy Sarinana and Shelbi McFarland are called the Plaintiffs, and the company they sued, Shelfbot Co., is called the Defendant.

2. What is the Action About?

The Action generally involves claims under California's wage and hour laws. Plaintiffs are former non-exempt employees of Defendant. They allege that Defendant did not compensate their employees for all hours worked, did not provide them with meal and rest breaks, did not provide accurate itemized wage statements, failed to pay wages upon ending employment, and failed to indemnify for expenditures. As a result, Plaintiffs allege that they and Settlement Class Members (defined in response to Question 4 below) are entitled to recover unpaid wages, including overtime wages, interest, reimbursement of business expenditures, and penalties. Defendant denies that it engaged in any wrongful conduct or that it violated the law in any way, and it believes that Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class were properly compensated and provided meal and rest breaks, reimbursement for necessary business expenditures, and accurate itemized wage statements.

3. Why is This A Class Action?

Class action lawsuits are generally used where a large number of individuals are believed to be affected. In a class action, one or more persons, called the "Plaintiffs" (in this case, Wendy Sarinana and Shelbi McFarland), sue on behalf of people who have similar alleged claims. All of these people are a "class" or "class members." Once the class is certified, the Court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the class. Class certification does not mean that there was any wrongdoing on the part of Defendant. On September 22, 2022, the Honorable William Claster issued an order conditionally certifying the Settlement Class for Settlement purposes only.

4. Who Is In The Settlement Class?

"Settlement Class Members" or "Settlement Class" means all non-exempt, hourly paid employees currently and formerly employed by Defendant in the State of California at any time from March 9, 2020, through May 15, 2022, that have not elected to be excluded

5. Why Is There A Settlement?

After conducting thorough investigation, including review of policies, payroll records, time records and personnel files, both sides have agreed to the Settlement as described in this notice to avoid the cost and risk of further litigation. The Settlement does not mean that any law was broken or that Defendant engaged in any wrongdoing. Defendant denies all of the claims asserted in the Action and denies that it has violated any laws. A settlement permits the parties to avoid the cost, delay, and uncertainty of trial, and permits eligible Class Members to receive some compensation sooner, rather than engaging in years of further litigation – including motions for summary judgment, trial, and an appeal – with the possibility of no recovery at all. The Settling Parties disagree on both liability and damages, and do not agree on the average amount of damages, if any, that would be recoverable if the Class Representatives were to prevail at trial on each claim. Nonetheless, Defendant has concluded that further defense of this Action would be protracted and expensive, and that it is desirable that this Action be fully and finally settled upon the terms and conditions approved by the Court in order to limit further expense and avoid the burden of protracted litigation. Defendant entered into a proposed Settlement without in any way admitting to or acknowledging any fault, liability or wrongdoing of any kind. There has been no adverse determination by any court against Defendant or anyone else on the merits of the claims asserted in the Complaint.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET

6. What Does The Settlement Provide?

Under the terms of the Settlement, Defendant agrees to pay a Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Forty-Five Thousand Dollars ($245,000.00). Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount no later than twenty-one (21) days of the Final Approval Date. Individual Settlement Payments will be mailed by regular First-Class U.S. Mail to Settlement Class Members' last known address no later than fifteen (15) calendar days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount.

Deducted from this Gross Settlement Amount will be sums approved by the Court for attorneys' fees, not to exceed Eighty-One Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents ($81,666.66), which is 33-1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount; attorneys' actual costs, not to exceed Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000.00); Class Representative Enhancement Awards to each Plaintiff for their services as Plaintiffs and class representatives, not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for each Plaintiff, which would be a total of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00); a payment of Eleven Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($11,250.00) to the State of California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") for alleged civil penalties; and the fees and expenses of the Settlement Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators, not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), which will result in a net amount payable by Defendant for distribution to Settlement Class Members who do not opt out ("The Net Settlement Amount"). The remaining Three Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($3,750.00) of the PAGA Allocation, will be paid to Class Members who worked during the PAGA Period based on the number of pay periods worked by the Class Member during the PAGA Period, June 8, 2020, to September 22, 2022).

Individual Class Settlement Payment Formula: The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed to Settlement Class Members who do not opt out of the Settlement ("Participating Class Members"), as follows: Compensable weeks will be all weeks in which Participating Class Members worked for Defendant in California between March 9, 2020, through May 15, 2022 ("Class Period"). The Settlement Administrator shall divide the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of workweeks all Participating Class Members worked during the Class Period in California for Defendant in order to determine the amount to which each Participating Class Member is entitled for each workweek he or she was employed by Defendant (the "Weekly Amount") during the Class Period. Workweeks are determined by the Settlement Administrator calculating the number of days each Participating Class Member worked at Defendant was employed during the Class Period and divide by seven (7). The Settlement Administrator will multiply the Weekly Amount by the total number of workweeks that each Participating Class Member worked during the Class Period for Defendant to arrive at the gross Individual Settlement Payment for each Participating Class Member. The Settlement Administrator will then deduct all Employee Taxes attributable to wages to arrive at the net Individual Settlement Payment for each Participating Class Member.

No benefit, including but not limited to pension benefits, shall increase or accrue as a result of any payment made as a result of the Settlement.

The Parties recognize that the settlement amounts to be paid to the Participating Class Members are for wages, interest, and penalties. The Parties agree that one-third (33.33%) of the Participating Class Member payments shall be reported as wages on IRS Form W-2 and its state and local equivalents, and two-thirds (66.67%) shall be reported as interest and penalties on IRS Form 1099 and its state and local equivalents. The Parties are neither providing tax or legal advice, nor making representations regarding tax obligations or consequences, if any, related to any settlement amounts to be paid to the Participating Class Members. Each Participating Class Member will assume any employee tax obligations or consequences that may arise from any settlement amount paid to him or her and should consult with a tax expert if he or she has questions. Each Participating Class Member's pro rata gross distribution amount will be reduced by the amount of any required employee-related tax deductions.

Individual Class Settlement Payment to Participating Class Members: Each Participating Class Member shall be eligible to receive an Individual Settlement Payment, which is a share of the Net Settlement Amount, based on the number of weeks worked by the Participating Class Member for Defendant during the Class Period, as a proportion of all weeks worked by all Participating Class Members for Defendant during the Class Period.

Individual PAGA Settlement Payment Formula: The Settlement Administrator shall divide the PAGA Allocation to be distributed to Class Members that worked during the PAGA Period regardless of whether they opt-out of the Individual Class Settlement Payment. Twenty-Five percent (25%) of the PAGA Allocation or Three Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($3,750.00) shall be distributed to Class Members by the total number of pay periods they worked during the PAGA Period. Each Class Member's Individual PAGA Payment will be calculated based on the total number of pay periods he or she worked during the PAGA Period. To establish the pay period value, the Settlement Administrator will first determine the total number of pay periods worked by Class Members during the PAGA Period. Twenty-Five percent (25%) of the PAGA Allocation will then be divided by the total number of pay periods worked by Class Members during the PAGA Period to determine the pay period value. The product of each calculation represents the gross Individual PAGA Settlement Payment for the respective Class Member.

SHELFBOT CO.'S RECORDS INDICATE YOU WORKED APPROXIMATELY [INSERT WORKWEEKS] WORKWEEKS DURING THE SETTLEMENT CLASS PERIOD.

SHELFBOT CO.'S RECORDS INDICATE YOU WORKED APPROXIMATELY [INSERT PAY PERIODS] PAY PERIODS DURING THE PAGA PERIOD.

BASED ON YOUR TOTAL WORKWEEKS DURING THE CLASS PERIOD AND PAY PERIODS WORKED DURING THE PAGA PERIOD, YOUR ESTIMATED INDIVIDUAL SETTLEMENT PAYMENT IS [INSERT AMOUNT], TO BE ISSUED LESS APPLICABLE TAXES.

To the extent any Participating Class Member disputes any aspect of his or her payment, that Participating Class Member must complete a workweek dispute report form and produce supporting evidence to the Settlement Administrator and it must be postmarked no later than December 16, 2022. Late workweek dispute forms will not be considered. Defendant's records will be presumed determinative.

Once the Settlement becomes final (as described in response to Question 17 below), the process of funding the Gross Settlement Amount (as described above) will begin. The Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members will be made within fifteen (15) calendar days after Defendant fully funds the Settlement. Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount by no later than Twenty-One (21) days after the Final Approval Date. Additionally, any settlement checks that are not cashed within one hundred eighty (180) days after mailing shall thereafter be paid to the California State Controller in the name of the Class Member who did not cash his or her check.

7. What Am I Giving Up In Exchange For Settlement Benefits?

In exchange for the consideration provided, Plaintiffs and each member of the Settlement Class who does not submit a valid Request for Exclusion (defined in response to Question 10 below) will release Shelfbot, Co., and each of its parent companies, subsidiaries, related companies, affiliates, dbas, current and former management companies, shareholders, members, agents (including any investment bankers, accountants, insurers, reinsurers, attorneys and any past, present or future officers, directors and employees) predecessors, successors, and assigns, or any related entity that was the "employer" of Class Members (collectively, the "Released Parties") from any and all claims during the Class Period which were or could have been raised based on the facts, conduct, and/or omissions alleged in the Action, including all wage and hour claims, demands, rights, liabilities, and causes of action for unpaid wages, including minimum wage payments, regular wages, overtime wages; failure to pay wages during employment; failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment; failure to maintain and provide accurate records; meal and rest break violations; meal and rest break premiums; wage statement violations, failure to reimburse for necessary business expenditures, violation of the Private Attorney General Act (California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.), civil and statutory penalties, interest, liquidated damages, attorney's fees and costs, claims under California Labor Code sections 90.5, 201-204, 225.5, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698-2699.5, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, and claims under California Business & Professions Code sections 17200-17204. It is understood and agreed that Released Claims do not include claims for workers' compensation, unemployment, or disability benefits of any nature, nor any claims, actions, or causes of action which may be possessed by Settlement Class Members under state or federal discrimination statutes, including, without limitation, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, California Government Code section 12940, et seq.; the Unruh Civil Rights Act, California Civil Code section 51, et seq.; the California Constitution; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000, et seq.; the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq.; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 1001, et seq.; and all of their implementing regulations and interpretive guidelines.

HOW TO GET A SETTLEMENT PAYMENT

8. How Do I Get A Settlement Payment?

If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will automatically receive a class settlement payment in exchange for which, whether or not you cash or deposit the payment, you will be bound by all terms of the Settlement and any Final Judgment entered in this Action if the Settlement receives final approval by the Court; and you will give up your rights to be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties involving the same or similar legal claims as the ones in this case, based on the facts alleged in the Action. You will be mailed a settlement check at the address where this notice was mailed (unless you timely provide a forwarding address to the Settlement Administrator). If you worked during the PAGA Period, you will also receive a PAGA Payment and will be bound by the release of PAGA claims.

9. When Will I Get My Check?

Checks will be mailed to Participating Class Members after the Gross Settlement Amount is fully funded (as described in response to Question 6 above). If the judge approves the Settlement after a hearing on March 17, 2023, (see “The Court’s Final Approval Hearing” section below), there may be appeals. If there are any appeals, resolving them could take some time, so please be patient. Please also be advised that you will have only 180 days from the date that your settlement check is issued to cash it. If you do not cash your settlement check within 180 days of the date of its issuance, your Individual Settlement Payment will be voided. Assuming there are no appeals, it is estimated that you will receive your settlement check within approximately forty-five (45) days after the Court grants final approval of the Settlement (see “The Court’s Final Approval Hearing” section below).

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

10. How Do I Ask The Court to Exclude Me From the Settlement Class?

If you do not wish to participate in the Settlement (“opt out”), you must complete and send a timely Request for Exclusion form. The Request for Exclusion must be signed, dated, and mailed by First Class U.S. Mail, or the equivalent, postmarked no later than December 16, 2022, to:

Phoenix Settlement Administrators
P.O. Box 7208
Orange, CA 92863

Requests for Exclusion that do not include all required information and/or that are not timely submitted will be deemed null, void, and ineffective. Settlement Class Members who fail to submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion on or before the above-specified deadline shall be bound by all terms of the Settlement and any Final Judgment entered in the Action if the Settlement is approved by the Court. Finally, this request for exclusion will not apply to your Individual PAGA Settlement Payment if you worked during the PAGA Period. You will receive your Individual PAGA Settlement Payment regardless of your request for exclusion and you will be bound by the PAGA release if the Settlement is approved.

11. If I Exclude Myself, Can I Get Anything From the Class Settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself now, you will not get anything from the settlement. If you ask to be excluded within the time allowed for a Request for Exclusion, you will not get an Individual Class Settlement Payment and you will not be bound by the Settlement. However, as stated in section 10, even if you submit a request for exclusion from the Class Action Settlement, it will not apply to your Individual PAGA Settlement Payment if you worked during the PAGA period and you will receive your Individual PAGA Settlement Payment regardless of your request for exclusion and you will be bound by the PAGA release if the Settlement is approved.

12. If I Don’t Exclude Myself, Can I Sue Later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up the right to sue the Released Parties for the claims that were or could have been brought based on the facts as alleged in this Action. You must exclude yourself from the Class Action Settlement within the time indicated in the response to Question 10 above if you wish to start or continue your own lawsuit.

Administrators
P.O. Box 7208

A written objection must be signed by the Settlement Class Member and must state: (1) the full name of the Settlement Class Member; (2) the dates of employment of the Settlement Class Member; (3) the last four digits of the Settlement Class Member's Social Security number and/or the entire Employee ID number; (4) the basis for the objection; and, (5) whether the Settlement Class Member intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. If a Settlement Class Member wishes to appear at the Court's Final Approval Hearing (see response to Question 17 below) and orally present his or his objection to the Court, they may do so whether or not they submitted a written objection to the Settlement Administrator. They may also hire counsel to represent them at the final approval hearing. Any Settlement Class Member who submits an objection or appears at the Final Approval Hearing to submit a verbal objection remains eligible to receive monetary compensation from the Settlement. Settlement Class Members who submit Requests for Exclusion may not object to the proposed Settlement.

16. What's The Difference Between Objecting and Asking to be Excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court you do not like something about the Settlement. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement. Whether you have filed an objection on time or not, you may attend and you may ask to speak, but you don't have to.

It is not necessary for you to appear at this hearing. You may appear and speak at the hearing if you want to do so, remotely or in-person. You can arrange for a remote appearance via Zoom through the Court's online check-in process available through the court's website at <https://www.occourts.org/mediarelations/civil.html>. Any attorney who will represent you must file a notice of appearance with the Court and serve the notice of appearance on Class Counsel and counsel for Defendant on or before [one week before the hearing]. You will be solely responsible for the fees and costs of your own attorney.

17. When and Where Will the Court Decide Whether to Approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on March 17, 2023, at 9:00 a.m. in Department CX-104 at the Superior Court of California for the County of Orange, located at 751 W. Santa Ana Blvd, Santa Ana, CA 92701. The hearing may be moved to a different date and/or time without additional notice. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court will only listen to people who ask to speak at the hearing. The Court will also decide how much should be paid for Class Counsel's fees and costs, the Settlement Administrator's costs, the PAGA Allocation, and Plaintiffs' Class Representative Service Awards. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement. If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, the date which the Court grants final approval of the Settlement will be the Final Approval Date. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

18. Do I Have to Come to the Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the judge may have. But you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it, however, you are welcome to do so. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend and represent you, but it is not required.

19. May I Speak At The Hearing?

If a Settlement Class Member wishes to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and orally present his or his objection to the Court, they may do so regardless of whether or not they submitted a written objection.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

20. What Happens If I Do Nothing At All?

If you do nothing, you will automatically receive a payment from this Settlement (assuming the Settlement is approved and not successfully appealed) as described above and you will be bound by the release of the claims described above and in the Settlement. If the Court grants final approval to the Settlement, notice of the final approval shall be posted on the Settlement Administrator's website at www.phoenixclassaction.com/shelfbot-co-inc/.
