On October 4, 2021, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging a single cause of action against Asurion for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"). Within ten (10) calendar days following entry of the Court's order granting preliminary approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff will file the First Amended Complaint attached hereto as Exhibit B alleging causes of action against Asurion for (1) failure to pay meal period and rest break premiums at the "regular rate of compensation;" (2) failure to provide accurate wage statements; (3) failure to timely pay wages upon cessation of employment; (4) unfair competition; and (5) for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Labor Code § 2698, et seq.) for (1) improper inclusion of PAGA waiver in arbitration agreement; (2) improper inclusion of confidentiality clause in employment agreement; (3) failure to pay meal period and rest break premiums at the "regular rate of compensation;" (4) failure to timely pay wages during employment; (5) failure to pay sick pay at the "regular rate of pay;" (6) failure to maintain accurate payroll records; and (7) failure to timely pay wages upon cessation of employment. The First Amended Complaint is the operative complaint in the Action (the "Operative Complaint"). Asurion denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any failure to comply with the laws identified in the Operative Complaint and denies any and all liability for the causes of action alleged. 2.2. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subd.(a), Plaintiff gave timely written notice to Asurion and the LWDA by sending the PAGA Notices.

Defendant would provide informally the requested discovery Plaintiff and his counsel needed to evaluate the class and PAGA claims, including Asurion's pay data, time data, applicable arbitration agreement with class and representative waivers, Pay Codes, and relevant policies. Plaintiff's investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 v. ("Dunk/Kullar").

- 2.5. The Court has not yet granted class certification. For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree that the Class, as defined in Paragraph 1.5 herein, may be certified in the Action. The Parties are not certifying any PAGA claims. In support of this Agreement, Plaintiff will request that the Court certify for settlement purposes only the Class as to all non-PAGA claims that have been asserted, which Asurion shall not oppose or object to.
 - 2.6. The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or affected by the Settlement.

Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Asurion and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment, either directly or indirectly, through any means. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 12.5. Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
 - 12.6. Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Asurion, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
 - 12.7. Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the

3	12.8.	No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they
4		have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported
5		to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any

11		Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
12	12.10.	Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be
13		amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument
14		signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
15	12.11.	Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and
16		inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
17	12.12.	Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits

19		of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
20	12.13.	Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and 21		preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against
22		any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the 23		drafting.
24	12.14.	Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and 25		orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the
26		confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.

Not later than ninety (90) days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Asurion unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Asurion makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Hector Chavez v. Asurion, LLC, et al.

Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 21SMCV01620

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully! It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action and PAGA lawsuit ("Action") against Asurion, LLC and Asurion UBIF Franchise, LLC (together "Asurion") for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a[former] Asurion employee, Hector Chavez ("Plaintiff") and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for a class of current and former non-exempt, hourly paid employees ("Class Members") of UBIF Franchise LLC, employed in California at any time from June 29, 2020, through the date of preliminary approval or October 1, 2022, whichever is sooner; and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act ("PAGA") for all current and former non-exempt, hourly paid employees of UBIF Franchise LLC, employed in California at any time from July 20, 2020, through the date of preliminary approval or October 1, 2022, whichever is sooner ("Aggrieved Employees"). The Class Period is from June 29, 2020 through ______.

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Asurion to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Asurion to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA").

Based on Asurion's records, and the Parties' current assumptions, your Individual ClassPayment is estimated to be (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be (less withholding). The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Asurion's records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn't work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Asurion's records showing that you worked workweeks during the Class Period and you worked workweeks during the PAGA Period and that you experienced terminations. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's attorneys ("Class Counsel"). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Asurion to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Asurion.

If you worked for Asurion during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

(1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. If you do nothing, and the Court approves the Settlement, as a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Asurion.

(2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Asurion, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. If you are an Aggrieved Employee, you cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Asurion will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

22	1. WHAT IS TI	HE ACTION ABOUT?
23	Plaintiff is a [former]	Asurion employee. The Action accuses Asurion of violating California
24	labor laws by failing to pay	meal and rest period premiums at the regular rate, failing to pay wages

Plaintiff is a fromer f Astrion employee. The Action accuses Astrion of violating Cantonna labor laws by failing to pay meal and rest period premiums at the regular rate, failing to pay wages due upon termination, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and committing unfair business practices. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action:

Jeremy F. Bollinger, Dennis F. Moss, Ari E. Moss, and Jorge A. Flores of Moss Bollinger LLP ("Class Counsel.")

Asurion strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Asurion or Plaintiff is correct on the merits.

In the meantime, Plaintiff and Asurion hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Asurion have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Asurion does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Asurion has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

Asurion Will Pay Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) as the Gross Settlement Amount ("Gross Settlement"). Asurion has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Asurion will fund the Gross Settlement not more than fourteen (14) calendar days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.

Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:

- A. Up to $70,000 (35% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees (subject to increase if the Gross Settlement increases) and up to $15,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $7,500 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Approximately $29,250 for PAGA Penalties for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the "Net Settlement") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.

27 4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Asurion are asking the 28 Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages ("Wage

Portion") and 80% to non-economic damages and interest ("Non-Wage Portion.). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. (Asurion will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Asurion have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than ______, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Asurion. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Asurion have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Asurion will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Asurion.

8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, Phoenix Settlement Administrators (the "Administrator") to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.

9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and Asurion has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Asurion or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action including, e.g., any and all claims including, but not limited to: (1) Improper inclusion of PAGA waiver in arbitration agreement; (2) Improper inclusion of confidentiality clause in employment agreement; (3) Failure to pay meal period and rest break premiums at the "regular rate of compensation;" (4) Failure to timely pay wages during employment under; (5) Failure to pay sick pay at the "regular rate of pay;" (6) failure to maintain accurate payroll records; (7) failure to timely pay wages upon termination; and, (8) Violation of the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Labor Code § 2698, et seq.) predicated

1	on the same or similar facts and/or claims alleged in the Lawsuit and/or any PAGA letter sent to the LWDA by Plaintiff in or prior to the Lawsuit, as well
2	as any claims that reasonably could have been pled which arise from the same or similar facts concerning the Named Plaintiff or the putative class, and claims
3	for interest, penalties (including but not limited to waiting time penalties), as well as any claims under the California Labor Code and California Industrial
4	Welfare Commission Wage Orders that were alleged (specifically for violations of Labor Code sections 423.5, 232, 226.7, 204, 246, 1174, 201-203, and Wage
5	Order 4-2001), or which could have been alleged under the same or similar facts, allegations and/or claims pleaded in the Lawsuit. Except as set forth in
6	Section 5.2 of the Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination,
7 8	violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.
9	10. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release . After the Court's judgment is final, and
10	Asurion has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all
11	Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Asurion, whether or not
12	they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including
13	those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue,
14	continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Asurion or its related entities based
15	on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.
16	The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members
17	are as follows:
18	All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved
19	Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators,
20	successors, and assigns, the Released Parties, from all claims of PAGA predicated on the facts and/or claims alleged in the Action and/or any PAGA
21	letter sent to the LWDA by Plaintiff or in any way premised in whole or in part on any of the Released Class Claims that arose at any time during the PAGA

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments using the following formula: The Net Settlement Amount will be allocated among Participating Class Members on a proportional basis based on the number of Work Weeks worked during the Class Period and whether the Participating Class Member experienced a termination during the Class Period. Participating Class Members shall be allocated one (1) points of credit for each Work Week they worked within the Class Period and five (5) points of credit if the Participating Class Member experienced a termination within the Class Period. One day worked in a given week will be credited as a Work Week for purposes of these calculations. To calculate each Class Member's proportional share, the Administrator will (i) Add all points for all Participating Class Members to obtain the Denominator; (ii) Divide the number of points for each Participating Class Member by the Denominator to obtain each Class Member's portion of the Net Settlement Amount; (iii) Multiply each Participating Class Member's portion of the Net Settlement Amount by the Net Settlement Amount to determine each Class Member's estimated individual settlement payment of the Net Settlement Amount.

2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing approximately $7,312.50 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.

3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Asurion's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until ______ to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information. You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Asurion's calculation of 2 Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Asurion's records as accurate unless you send copies of 3 records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the 4 documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period 5 challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf 6 of Participating Class Members) and Asurion's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You 7 can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

1. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit as a class action on behalf of other similarly situated 5 persons who work or worked for Asurion LLC and Asurion UBIF Franchise LLC ("Asurion" or 6 7 "Defendants") and, as a proxy for the State of California, brings a representative law enforcement action under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), Labor Code Section 2698 et 8 9 seq., to recover civil penalties against Defendants. 13 all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of one or more of the other Defendants, carried out

FACTS RELEVANT TO PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS

17 13. At all relevant times, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other similarly aggrieved 18 employees subject to Labor Code Section 435.2. Labor Code Section 432.5 provides: "No 19 employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or 20 applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such 21 employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law."

14. When Defendants hired Plaintiff, they required Plaintiff to sign a document entitled "Employment, Confidential Information, Invention Assignment and Arbitration Agreement" as a condition of employment (the "Agreement"). Among other things, the Agreement contains an arbitration agreement and confidentiality agreement. Attached as Exhibit A to Exhibit 1 hereto is a true and correct copy of the Agreement dated October 30, 2020. On information and belief, Defendants also required all other aggrieved employees to sign the Agreement as a condition of 28

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 employment.

15. The Agreement Defendants required Plaintiff to sign as a condition of his employment contains in Section 7(D) a purported waiver of Plaintiff's right to bring any claim related to his employment on a representative basis under California's Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. ("PAGA") that is unenforceable as a matter of settled California Law.

16. Section 7(D) of the Agreement states in bold, in relevant part:

8 Class Action Waiver. Both the Company and I agree to bring any dispute in arbitration on an individual basis only, and not on a class, collective, 9 representative or private attorney general basis. There will be no right or authority for any dispute to be brought, heard or arbitrated as a class, 10 collective, representative or private attorney general action, or as a member in any purported class, collective, representative or private attorney general 11 proceeding, including without limitation pending but not certified class actions 12 ("Class Action Waiver"). Disputes regarding the validity and enforceability of the Class Action Waiver may be resolved only by a civil court of competent jurisdiction 13 and not by an arbitrator.

¹⁴ (Exhibit A to Exhibit 1 hereto at § 7 (original bold and italics).)

15 17. At the time Defendants required Plaintiff to sign the Agreement containing the 16 waiver of his right to a trial of PAGA claims in October 2020, it was well-established that such 17 PAGA waivers are contrary to California law and unenforceable. See Iskanian v. CLS 18 Transportation Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348 384 ("We conclude that where, as here, 19 an employment agreement compels the waiver of representative claims under the PAGA, it is 20 contrary to public policy and unenforceable as a matter of state law."); Juarez v. Wash Depot 21 Holdings, Inc. (2018) 24 Cal. App. 5th 1197, 1202–03 ("court properly concluded that the PAGA 22 waiver set forth in the handbook is unenforceable as against public policy"); Lawson v. ZB, N.A. 23 (2017) 18 Cal. App. 5th 705, 725, as modified (Dec. 21, 2017) (same).

18. Despite knowing that the Agreement contains an unlawful and unenforceable PAGA waiver, Defendants continued to require its employees to sign these arbitration agreements during the one-year period preceding Plaintiff's submission of his notice letter to Defendants and the LWDA. By requiring Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to sign mandatory arbitration agreements that Defendants knew contained an unlawful PAGA waiver, Defendants violated section 432.5. In doing so, Defendants deterred their employees from pursuing PAGA claims that the employees otherwise are entitled to pursue in court.

5 19. At all relevant times, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other similarly aggrieved 6 employees subject to Labor Code Section 232. Under Labor Code Section 232, employers are 7 prohibited from preventing an employee "from disclosing the amount of his or her wages" (Lab.
8 Code § 232(a)) and prohibits employers to "require an employee to sign a waiver or other 9 document that purports to deny the employee the right to disclose the amount of his or her wages"
10 (Lab. Code § 232(b)).

20. Section 2 of the Agreement Defendants required Plaintiff and other similarly aggrieved employees to sign as a condition of employment is entitled "Confidential Information" and precluded Plaintiff from disclosing his wages by requiring:

at all times during the term of my employment and thereafter, to hold in strictest confidence, and not to use or to disclose to any person, firm or corporation, except as such use or disclosure is required in connection with my work for the Company or unless the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (or his/her designee) otherwise expressly authorizes in writing, any Confidential Information." Section 2 defines "Confidential Information" to include, among other things, "information regarding the skills, compensation and career path and evaluations of the Company's employees.

¹⁹ (Exhibit A to Exhibit 1 hereto at § 2.)

20 21. At all relevant times, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other similarly situated 21 employees subject to Labor Code Section 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders, including Wage 22 Order 4-2001(11) and (12). Labor Code Section 226.7 (emphasis added) states, in relevant part:
23 "If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal or rest or recovery period in accordance with a state law,..., the employer shall pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's 25 regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided."

26 27

22. Similarly, Wage Order 4-2001(11) (emphasis added) provides: "If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided." Wage Order 4-2001(11)(B), (12)(B) (same re rest periods).

5 23. During the relevant period, Defendants paid premium wages to Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees for violations of the California's meal and rest period laws. However, 6 7 Defendants paid these employees one hour of pay at their base hourly rates when compensating 8 those employees for violations of the meal and rest period requirements, including in periods when 9 employees earned bonuses and other non-discretionary remuneration (noted on their wage statements as "Sales Incentive", "UBIF bonus" and "Ace Reward" among others) required to be 10 factored into an employee's regular rate of compensation. Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC 11 12 (Cal. July 15, 2021) --- P.3d ---- (holding that when employers pay one-hour meal and rest period 13 premiums to employees who report that they were not provided compliant meal or rest periods, the pay is not at the employee's normal "base" hourly rate but must be at the same FLSA "regular 14 15 rate" that is used to calculate overtime premiums).

16 24. For example, during the two pay periods in the month of November 2020, 17 Defendants paid Plaintiff premiums for 14 meal period violations. For that same month, Plaintiff
18 earned and was paid $370 in Sales Incentives and a UBIF bonus of $39.29. However, Defendants 19 paid Plaintiff's premiums at his base hourly rate of $13.00 because it did not factor the Sales 20 Incentive or UBIF bonus into the regular rate of compensation for the premiums.

21 25. During the relevant period, Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees were 22 entitled to "paid sick days" pursuant to the California Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act 23 of 2014, California Labor Code sections 245, et seq.

24 26. Labor Code Section 246(l) requires that employers pay sick time pay to non-exempt 25 employees at the employee's "regular rate of pay." Employers may either calculate "paid sick 26 days" for non-exempt employees in California at the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which 27 the employee uses paid sick time or by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime

premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. (Lab. Code § 246(l)(1-2)). The "regular rate of pay" includes all remuneration for employment paid to the employee and includes non-discretionary incentive bonuses.

27. On information and belief, during the relevant period, similarly situated employees accrued and took paid sick leave. However, Defendants failed to include such non-discretionary remuneration when determining the "regular rate of pay" for these employees for purposes of sick time pay when they were paid sick time pay and non-discretionary bonuses in the same pay period.
Instead, Defendants only paid these aggrieved employees paid sick leave at their base hourly rate, rather than at their "regular rate of pay."

28. At all relevant times, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees subject to Labor Code Section 204. California Labor Code § 204, subdivision (a), states that all wages earned are due and payable twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the employers.

14 29. During the relevant period, Defendants did not correctly pay Plaintiff and other 15 similarly situated employees the meal and rest premiums owed for meal and rest break violations 16 (as alleged above). Defendants also failed to include such non-discretionary remuneration when determining the "regular rate of pay" for these employees for purposes of sick time pay when they 17 18 were paid sick time pay and incentive bonuses in the same pay period. Defendants willfully failed 19 to timely pay Plaintiff and other similarly aggrieved employees all wages due for work performed 20and this failure continued through the time in which they were employed by Defendants. As a 21 result, Defendants violated Labor Code § 204.

30. Labor Section 226(a) requires employers to list on an employee's wage statement, inter alia, "(1) Gross wages earned...and (5) net wages earned..."

24 31. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees of Defendants received wage statements 25 that did not list all wages earned, including meal and rest period premiums wages and the full 26 amount of sick pay wages. As alleged above, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were 27 entitled to premium wages that were not paid and, therefore, are entitled to penalty payments

pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.

2 32. Labor Code Section 1174 states, "[e]very person employing labor in this state 3 shall...(d) [k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid 4 to, ..., employees employed at the respective plants or establishments." The "Records" section of 5 the applicable IWC Wage Order states that every employer shall keep accurate information with 6 7 respect to each one of its employees, including time records showing when the employee begins 8 and ends each work period and meal period, total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable 9 rates of pay, and total wages paid each payroll period. (See Wage Order 4-2001(7)).

33. Defendants failed to keep accurate information with respect to Plaintiff's and other similarly situated employees' payroll, including the applicable rates of pay and total wages earned (such as non-discretionary renumeration when determining the regular rate of compensation for the payment of meal and rest period premiums) each payroll period as required by the "Records" section of the applicable IWC Wage Order. Therefore, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to keep and maintain accurate records as required by Labor Code section 1174.

34. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 201 and 202, Defendants are required to immediately pay all wages owed in the case of a discharge or resignation when the resigning employee provided at least three days' notice of resignation or within 72 hours for those employees who resign and provide less than 3 days' notice. Labor Code Section 203 provides for continuation of wages, from the day earned and unpaid were due upon termination until paid, for a maximum of 30 days.

35. Plaintiff and others have ceased their employment with Defendants. Upon the cessation of that employment relationship (and as prescribed by statute), they did not receive all wages owed. Namely, said former employees (including Plaintiff) did not receive all wages due to Defendants' failure to account for all sick leave pay and failure to pay all premium wages for missed rest and meal periods. Plaintiff and those similarly situated, upon termination, did not receive all owed wages on the date of termination, or within 72 hours if they resigned. Therefore,

Defendants have violated and continue to violate Labor Code Sections 201 and 202, because they have not paid the aforementioned wages and have violated Section 203 because they have not paid the waiting time penalties for their failure to pay the final wages at the cessation of employment.

CLASS DEFINITIONS AND CLASS ALLEGATIONS

5 36. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself, on behalf of all others similarly 6 situated, and as a member of the Class defined as follows:

- All current and former non-exempt, hourly paid employees of UBIF Franchise
 - LLC, employed in California at any time from June 29, 2020, through the date
 - of preliminary approval or October 1, 2022, whichever is sooner.

37. This action has been brought and may be properly maintained as a class action pursuant to the provisions of California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 and other applicable law.

12 38. Numerosity: Code of Civil Procedure § 382: member of the class are so numerous 13 that their individual joinder is impracticable. Plaintiff estimates that there are no less than 50 14 persons in each of the classes. The precise number of Class members and their addresses are 15 unknown to Plaintiff. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that the number can be obtained 16 from Defendants records. Class members may be notified of the pendency of this action by mail, 17 electronic mail, the internet, or published notice.

39. Existence of Predominance of Common Question of Fact and Law: Code of Civil Procedure § 382: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Classes.
These questions predominate over any questions effecting only individual members of the classes.
These common factual and legal questions include:

- (a) Whether Defendants failed to factor non-discretionary renumeration into the payment of premium wages based on meal and rest period violations;
- (b) Whether Defendants failed to factor non-discretionary renumeration into the payment of paid sick leave;
 - (c) Whether Defendants issued accurate itemized wage statements;
 - (d) Whether Defendants failed to provide class members who ceased employment

1 with Defendants all wages owed at the time of the cessation of employee-2 employer relationship; 3 (e) Whether Defendants committed unlawful business practices or acts within the meaning of Business & Professions Code Sections 17200 et seq.; 4 5 (f) Whether, as a consequence of Defendants' unlawful conduct, the members of the Classes are entitled to restitution, and/or equitable relief; 6 7 (g) Whether Defendants' affirmative defenses, if any, raise any common issues of 8 law or fact as to Plaintiff and the class members as a whole. 9 40. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of each Class 10 because Plaintiff, as an hourly paid employee, was exposed to the same unlawful business practices

11 as the members of the classes. Plaintiff sustained the same types of injuries and losses that the 12 class members sustained. Plaintiff is subject to the same affirmative defenses as the members of 13 the class.

14 41. Adequacy: Plaintiff will adequately and fairly protect the interests of the members 15 of the Class. Plaintiff has no interest adverse to the interests of absent Class members. Plaintiff is represented by legal counsel who has substantial class action experience in civil litigation and 16 17 employment law.

18 42. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available means for fair and 19 efficient adjudication of the claims of the Class and would be beneficial for the parties and the 20court. Class action treatment will allow a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute 21 their common claims in a single forum, simultaneously, efficiently, and without the unnecessary 22 duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would require. The monetary 23 amounts due to many individual Class members are likely to be relatively small, and the burden 24 and expense of individual litigation would make it difficult or impossible for individual members 25 of the Class to seek and obtain relief. A class action will serve an important public interest by 26 permitting such individuals to effectively pursue recovery of the sums owed to them. Further,

Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the foregoing allegations as 8 though set forth herein. 9 44. Similarly, Wage Order 4-2001(11) (emphasis added) provides: "If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this 18 order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 19 20 compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided." 54. Plaintiff and other members of the Class were employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code Section 201 or 202 whose employment with Defendants ended during the relevant period.

55. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201 or 202, Plaintiff and other member of the

UNFAIR COMPETITION

(By Plaintiff and the Class against Defendants)

15 62. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the foregoing allegations as16 though set forth herein.

17 63. Defendants are "persons" as defined under Business & Professions Code § 17021.
18 64. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants committed the unfair business practices as defined 19 by Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq., by violating the laws alleged to have been violated in

23 employees of Defendants entitled to the benefits of Labor Code Section 201-203, 226, 226.7 and

4 of pay required by law. Accordingly, Plaintiff and other members of the Class did not receive the 5 full amount of premium wages that they were entitled to receive by law.

6 68. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 9 did not receive accurate wage statements they were entitled to receive by law.

69. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to

Accordingly, Plaintiff and members of the Class did not receive all of the wages they were entitled

CIVIL PENALTIES UNDER PAGA

(By Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees and the State of California against Defendants)

6 73. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the foregoing allegations as7 though set forth herein.

8 74. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were 9 "aggrieved employees" within the meaning of Labor Code Section 2699.

10 75. Defendants' conduct as described herein, arising from Defendants' requirement that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees sign an arbitration agreement that contains a provision 11 12 prohibited by law, prohibiting and preventing employees from disclosing the amount of his or her 13 wages, failure to pay rest and meal break premiums at the correct regular rate of compensation, failure to pay sick days at the correct regular rate of pay, failure to maintain complete and accurate 14 15 records, failure to timely pay all wages during employment, and failure to timely pay all wages upon cessation of employment, constitute violations of Labor Code Sections 201-204, 226.7, 232, 16 246(1), 432.5, 1174(d), 1174.5 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including Sections 7, 11, and 17 18 12 of Wage Order 4-2001.

19 76. Labor Code Sections 2699(a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf applicable IWC Wage Orders, including Wage Order 4-2001, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(i), 75% of the civil penalties recovered shall be distributed to the LWDA, and 25% shall be distributed to the aggrieved employees.

12 Code section 2699 for a violation of Labor Code Section 1174(d).

16 entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or the amount specified in Sections 1174.5 and
