15 by this Court.

16 4. For purposes of this Settlement, the First Amended Complaint (“FAC”), attached

14 excess amount will become part of the available Net Settlement Amount.

15 13. The Court approves, as to form and content, the Notice in substantially the form

22 Implementation Schedule, meet the requirements of due process and provide the best notice
23 practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons
24 entitled thereto.

25 15. To facilitate administration of the Settlement pending final approval, the Court
26 hereby enjoins Plaintiffs and all Class Members from filing or prosecuting any claims, suits or 27 administrative proceedings (including, but not limited to, filing claims with the Division of 28

1 Labor Standards Enforcement of the California Department of Industrial Relations) regarding
2 claims released by the Settlement unless and until such Class Members have filed valid Requests

1. *Why Have I Received This Notice?

Florexpo, LLC's and/or Kendal Floral Supply, LLC's (hereinafter referred to as "Defendants") records indicate that you may be a Class Member. The settlement will resolve all Class Members' Released Claims, as described in Section No. 9 below, from May 26, 2016 to November 24, 2022 (the "Class Period").

A Preliminary Approval Hearing was held on December 16, 2022, in the California Superior Court, County of San Diego. The Court conditionally certified the Class for settlement purposes only and directed that you receive this Notice.

The Court will hold a Final Fairness Hearing concerning the proposed settlement on May 19, 2023 at 8:30 a.m., before Honorable Keri Katz in Department C-74, located at 330 West Broadway, San Diego, California 92101.

2. *What Is This Case About?

A class action complaint against Defendants was filed in the San Diego County Superior Court on May 26, 2020 (Case No. 37-2020-00016123-CU-OE-CTL). The complaint alleged the following causes of action against Defendant: (1) failure to pay all straight time wages; (2) failure to pay all overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) knowing and intentional failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions; (6) failure to pay all wages at the time of termination of employment; and (7) violation of Unfair Competition Law, on behalf of non-exempt, hourly employees.

A PAGA (California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004) representative action complaint against Defendants was filed in the San Diego County Superior Court on May 26, 2020 (Case No. 37-2020-00015644-CU-OE-CTL). The complaint sought civil penalties under the PAGA in relation to the following alleged violations suffered by allegedly similar aggrieved employees: (1) failure to pay all straight time wages; (2) failure to pay all overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to pay all wages at the time of termination of employment; (6) knowing and intentional failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions; and (7) failure to pay all wages owed twice per month.

The two cases (Case Nos. 37-2020-00016123-CU-OE-CTL and Case No. 37-2020-00015644-CU-OE-CTL) have been consolidated.

The Court has not made any determination as to whether the claims advanced by the Plaintiffs have any merit. In other words, the Court has not determined whether any laws have been violated, nor has it decided in favor of Plaintiff or Defendants; instead, both sides agreed to resolve the lawsuit with no decision or admission of who is right or wrong. By agreeing to resolve the lawsuit, all parties avoid the risks and cost of a trial.

Defendants expressly deny that they did anything wrong or that they violated the law and further deny any liability whatsoever to Plaintiffs or to the Class.

3. *Am I A Class Member? Am I An Eligible Aggrieved Employee?

Defendants and the Released Parties<sup>1</sup> from the Released Class Claims. The Released Class Claims are:

All members of the Class will release and discharge the Released Parties from any and all wage-and-hour claims, rights, demands, liabilities and causes of action of every nature and description whether pled or could have been pled based on the factual allegations made in the Lawsuits against Defendants, for the duration of the Class Period, based upon the following categories of allegations: failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to pay doubletime wages, failure to pay for off-the-clock work, failure to provide meal periods or meal period premium payments, failure to provide rest periods or rest period premium payments, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to properly calculate, provide and pay paid sick leave, failure to timely pay wages due during employment, and failure to pay all wages due upon termination of employment, violation of the applicable provisions of the California Labor Code, violation of applicable portions of the California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11040, violation of California's unfair business practices and unfair competition laws to the extent they arise from violations of the Labor Code provisions alleged in the Lawsuits.

If you are an Eligible Aggrieved Employee, you will be bound by the Final Judgment and will release the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims, even if you opt-out of the settlement. The Released PAGA Claims include any and all claims for civil penalties under the California Labor Code and the Private Attorneys General Act predicated upon the Labor Code violations that were asserted in the Lawsuits as well as any potential penalties, interest or attorneys' fees associated with those violations under California law.

All Class Members who do not opt out of the Settlement will be enjoined from prosecuting the Released Class Claims and initiating or continuing other proceedings regarding the Release Class Claims, including but not limited to filing any claims for monetary relief of the Released Claims before the Division of Labor Standards and Enforcement ("DLSE") or in any forum whatsoever. All Eligible Aggrieved Employees will be enjoined from prosecuting the Released PAGA Claims and from initiating or continuing other proceedings regarding the Released PAGA Claims, including but not limited to filing any claims for monetary relief of the Released PAGA Claims before the DLSE or in any forum whatsoever.

10. How Much Can I Expect to Receive From This Settlement?

The total maximum amount that Defendants could be required to pay under this Agreement shall be up to but no more than $2,000,000 ("Gross Settlement Amount" or "GSA").

A. Deductions from the Settlement

The "Net Settlement Amount" or "NSA" means the portion of the Gross Settlement Amount, available for distribution to Class Members after the deduction of (1) the Class Representative Enhance Payments to the named Plaintiffs in an amount up to $10,000 each, for prosecution of the Lawsuits, risks undertaken for the payment of attorneys' fees and costs, and a general release of all claims; (2) the Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator in an amount estimated not to exceed $50,000; (3) a payment of $200,000 allocated to the PAGA claims; and (4) payment to Class Counsel in an amount not to exceed $666,660 (33.333% of the Gross Settlement Amount) for attorneys' fees and an amount not to exceed $30,000 for litigation costs. All of these payments are subject to court approval.

<sup>1</sup> "Released Parties" means Defendants, and any of their former and present parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and other officers, directors, employees, partners, and agents, and any other successors, assigns, or legal representatives.

B. How Class Member Settlement Payments are Calculated

After deducting the above-referenced items, the remaining Net Settlement Amount, will be proportionately distributed amongst all Class Members who have not opted out. Each Participating Class Member will receive a proportionate share of the Net Settlement Amount that is equal to (i) the number of weeks he or she worked for Defendants in California, in an hourly, non-exempt position, based on the Class Data provided by Defendants, divided by (ii) the total number of weeks worked by all Participating Class Members based on the same Class Data, which is then multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount. One day worked in a given week will be credited as a work week for purposes of this calculation. Therefore, the value of each Class Member's Individual Class Settlement Share ties directly to the amount of weeks that he or she worked.

C. How Eligible Aggrieved Employees' Settlement Payments are Calculated

If you are an Eligible Aggrieved Employee under the settlement, you will also receive a portion of the PAGA Payment. Pursuant to PAGA, the LWDA will receive a payment of $150,000 (75% of the $200,000 total PAGA Payment). The remaining $50,000 is the "Net PAGA Settlement Amount" or "NPSA" and will be proportionately distributed amongst all Eligible Aggrieved Employees. Each Eligible Aggrieved Employee will receive a proportionate share of the Net PAGA Settlement Amount that is equal to (i) the number of weeks he or she worked for Defendants in California, in an hourly, non-exempt position, based on the Class Data provided by Defendants, divided by (ii) the total number of weeks worked by all Participating Class Members based on the same Class Data, which is then multiplied by the Net PAGA Settlement Amount. One day worked in a given week will be credited as a work week for purposes of this calculation. Therefore, the value of each Eligible Aggrieved Employee's Individual PAGA Settlement Share ties directly to the amount of weeks that he or she worked.

D. Your Estimated Settlement Payment

Although your exact share of the Net Settlement Amount as a Class Member cannot be precisely calculated until after the time during which individuals may object or seek exclusion from the Settlement concludes, based upon the calculation above, your approximate share of the Net Settlement Amount, is as follows: $ [REDACTED], less taxes. This is based on the Class Data which shows you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the Class Period. The maximum number of workweeks any Class Member may have is [REDACTED].

If you are also an Eligible Aggrieved Employee, you will receive a share of the Net PAGA Settlement Amount. Based upon the calculation above, your approximate share of the Net PAGA Settlement Amount, is as follows: $ [REDACTED]. This is based on the PAGA Data which shows you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the PAGA Period. The maximum number of workweeks any Eligible Aggrieved Employee may have is [REDACTED].

E. Tax Treatment of Your Settlement Payments

Each Class Member's Individual Class Settlement Share will be apportioned as follows: 15% wages, 40% interest, and 45% penalties. The amounts paid as wages shall be subject to all tax withholdings customarily made from an employee's wages and all other authorized and required withholdings and shall be reported by W-2 forms. Payment of all amounts will be made subject to backup withholding unless a duly executed W-9 form is received from the payee(s). The amounts paid as penalties and interest shall be subject to all authorized and required withholdings other than the tax withholdings customarily made from employees' wages and shall be reported by IRS 1099 forms. Only the employee share of payroll tax withholdings shall be from each Class Member's Individual Class Settlement Share. The employer share of payroll tax withholdings shall be paid separate from and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount.

If you are an Eligible Aggrieved Employee, your Individual PAGA Settlement Share will be apportioned as 100% penalties. This will not be reduced by payroll tax withholding and deductions. The Settlement Administrator will issue to each Eligible Aggrieved Employee an IRS Form 1099 with respect to his/her Individual PAGA Settlement Share.

Nothing in this Notice is intended to constitute legal advice relating to the tax liability of any Class Member or Eligible Aggrieved Employee. To the extent that this Notice is interpreted to contain or constitute advice regarding any federal, state or local tax issue, such advice is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of avoiding any tax liability or penalties.

F. What Happens If You Don't Cash Your Check?

It is strongly recommended that upon receipt of your settlement check, you immediately cash it or cash it before the 180-day void date shown on each check. If any checks remain uncashed or not deposited by the expiration of the 180-day period, the Settlement Administrator will pay over the amount represented by the check to The Monarch School, a non-profit organization that qualifies as a cy pres beneficiary in compliance with section 384 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.

11. *How Will the Attorneys for the Class and the Class Representatives Be Paid?

The attorneys for Plaintiffs and the Class will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Subject to Court approval, the attorneys for Plaintiff and the Class shall be paid an amount not to exceed 33.333% of the Gross Settlement Amount ($666,660) for attorney fees and $30,000 for litigation costs.

Defendants have paid all of their own attorneys' fees and costs.

Plaintiffs will also be paid, subject to Court approval, an amount not to exceed $10,000 each, as an enhancement for the initiation of and prosecution of this case, the risks undertaken for the payment of costs in the event this case had been lost, and a general release of all claims.
