COME NOW Plaintiffs DONALD WALDEN JR., NATHAN ECHEVERRIA, AARON DICUS, BRENT EVERIST, TRAVIS ZUFELT, TIMOTHY RIDENOUR, and DANIEL TRACY, on behalf of themselves and all other similarly situated employees (“Named-Plaintiffs” and/or “Class Representatives”), together with Thierman Buck LLP and Gabroy Messer (“Class Counsel”), and hereby move this honorable Court for an order:

- (1) Awarding attorneys’ fees to Class Counsel in the amount of one third of the Total Settlement Amount, or $18,333,333.33;
- (2) Awarding litigation costs to Class Counsel in the amount of $168,350.88; and
- (3) Awarding service awards to Named-Plaintiffs and Class Representatives Donald Walden Jr., Nathan Echeverria, Aaron Dicus, Brent Everist, Travis Zufelt, Timothy Ridenour, and Daniel Tracy in the amount of $20,000 for each.

This motion is based on this Motion, the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support thereof, the declarations submitted in support of this Motion, all pleadings and papers on file in this action, and such other matters as the Court may consider.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

After eight years of heavily contested litigation in this Court, the Ninth Circuit, the United States Supreme Court, and the Nevada Supreme Court, a $55 million non-reversionary settlement was reached for the benefit of all opt-in plaintiffs and the class. In addition to the $55 million monetary recovery, this litigation resulted in a change of pay practice. Correctional officers (“COs”) employed by Defendant the State of Nevada, ex rel. its Department of Corrections (“Defendant” or “NDOC”) are now permitted to seek up to 45 minutes of compensation for the pre and post shift activities that were at issue in this case. This outstanding settlement would not exist but for the extraordinary efforts of Class Counsel and the Class Representatives.

The high hurdles and risks of this case cannot be overstated. Class Counsel decided to accept the case and vigorously litigate the action whereas other attorneys refused to take on the challenge. The Class Representatives were determined to bring their case to the attention of Class Counsel, despite having been repeatedly told that any effort to recover wages for the unpaid pre- and post-shift activities they had been performing over the years would be futile.

The most concerning obstacle for Plaintiffs was the sovereign immunity defense, which could have torpedoed the entire action. Class Counsel was able to overcome the significant hurdles that were presented in this case through intense preparation and extensive knowledge of this specific area of the law. In doing so, Class Counsel made new precedent-setting law in the Ninth Circuit and the Nevada Supreme Court. In 2020, the Ninth Circuit rejected the defense of sovereign immunity from suit when a state voluntarily removes a case to the federal forum. Walden v. Nevada, 945 F.3d 1088, 1094 (9th Cir. 2019) (“Even though Embury’s footnote expressly left open the question of whether a removing State defendant remains immunized from certain federal claims like those under the FLSA, Embury’s strong preference for a straightforward, easy-to-administer rule supports our holding that removal waives Eleventh Amendment immunity for all federal claims.”). Lead Class Counsel was singled out and congratulated by United States Circuit Court Judge Margaret McKeown in a personalized letter

1 for his advocacy on behalf of Plaintiffs-Appellants. Shortly after clearing the Ninth Circuit
2 hurdle, in 2021, the Nevada Supreme Court unanimously agreed with Class Counsel’s 3 interpretation of Nevada’s sovereign immunity statutory scheme and held that “the plain text of 4 NRS 41.031(1) leaves no room for construction: Nevada has waived the defense of sovereign
5 immunity to liability under the FLSA.” Echeverria v. State, 495 P.3d 471, 473 (2021).<sup>1</sup>

6 Getting over the sovereign immunity defense hurdle was indeed critical—otherwise 7 Plaintiffs would not have had any cause of action for damages—but Class Counsel also 8 methodically developed the facts to support Plaintiffs’ position that the pre- and post-shift 9 activities at issue in this case were indeed compensable. In doing so, Class Counsel was able to 10 prove to this Court that summary judgment should be entered against Defendant as to liability.
11 The Court’s summary judgment opinion, while not precedent-setting, will undoubtedly be used as 12 persuasive authority for future cases in this judicial district that involve pre- and post-shift 13 compensability questions.

14 Even after prevailing on summary judgement on liability and defeating the sovereign 15 immunity defense, Class Counsel was still tasked with convincing Defendant of its exposure.
16 Class Counsel hired experts early on in this action to perform random survey methodology to 17 determine the best estimate of uncompensated hours worked on a per-shift basis. It was through 18 this effort, together with the discovery evidence that had been attained, that Class Counsel and the 19 Class Representatives were able to convincingly explain to Defendant that it owed at least 28 20 minutes of overtime wages per shift, on average, to COs (had this case proceeded to trial Plaintiffs 21 were prepared to prove up to 45 minutes per shift).

22 The $55 million settlement would not have been reached without Class Counsel’s

23 <sup>1</sup> Had Defendant raised the sovereign immunity defense earlier in the litigation, the 24 hourly and monetary investment risk by Class Counsel would have been less. But Defendant 25 decided to wait to assert the sovereign immunity defense until after the close of intensive 26 discovery practice wherein Class Counsel had already invested thousands of attorney hours and 27 hundreds of thousands of dollars of actual costs of litigation. In other words, counsel invested 28 the majority of their time and money in this case at a time when litigation risks were highest, before Defendant had raised or received any ruling on the potentially dispositive issues resolved by the Ninth Circuit and the Nevada Supreme Court.

1 extensive litigation efforts, the summary judgment decision, and the two appellate victories. An 2 attorneys' fee award of one third of this common settlement fund will appropriately reward
3 Class Counsel for their successful representation of the opt-in plaintiffs and the class, including 4 their tenacity in pursuing appellate relief in the face of significant risk in the litigation, as detailed 5 below.

6 The proposed award is especially appropriate in view of the sheer volume of work 7 required. Collectively, Class Counsel expended a combined 5,090.25 hours of work on this 8 case, and the proposed fee award represents a lodestar multiplier of 4.8. Class Counsel's 9 remarkable success despite the inherent and obvious risk should be encouraged, where an 10 unfavorable judgment on the sovereign immunity issues would have bound all opt-in plaintiffs 11 and would have deterred (if not outright prohibited) absent class members from seeking future 12 relief for their unpaid pre- and post-shift work.

13 Class Counsel also incurred out-of-pocket litigation costs in the amount of $168,350.88.
14 These costs were reasonably incurred and benefited the opt-in and class members. These costs 15 include, for example, costs for sending out the collective action notice, opt-in and putative class 16 member depositions, depositions of prison wardens and organizational representatives of 17 Defendant, prison site visits across the state of Nevada, expert fees and costs for performing the 18 random survey and exposure calculations, as well as appellate expenses. Class Counsel has paid 19 all of these costs out-of-pocket in furtherance of this litigation without any guarantee that they 20 would be reimbursed. Accordingly, these costs should be reimbursed from the common fund.

21 Lastly, the $55 million common settlement fund would not have been possible without 22 the involvement of the Class Representatives. The Class Representatives sought out Class 23 Counsel, despite being repeatedly informed that their claims were meritless, and they were all 24 active throughout the eight years of litigation, from the initial consultation through written 25 discovery responses, deposition testimony, and settlement conference participation. Therefore, 26 the Class Representatives' request for $20,000 service awards each, as recognition for the work 27 that they performed on behalf of all opt-in plaintiffs and members of the class, in addition to the 28 risk that they undertook by coming forward with their legal claims, should be allocated from the

1 common fund. For all of these reasons, and as further discussed below, the Court is respectfully
 2 asked to grant this motion for approval of Class Counsel payment and Class Representative 3 service awards (“Motion”) in full.

4 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

5 The litigation history of this case was detailed in the motion for preliminary approval of 6 the collective and class action settlement (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) and will not be 7 repeated here. (ECF No. 430 at pp. 2-8.) The following facts supplement those previously 8 summarized in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and the declarations filed in support
 9 thereof. (ECF Nos. 430, 430-1 through 430-8.)

10 A. Potential Case Evaluation

11 Class Counsel was first tasked with evaluating the viability of this case back in 12 September 2013. (ECF No. 430-1, at ¶ 5, Declaration of Joshua D. Buck in Support of 13 Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Collective and Class Action Settlement (“Buck 14 Dec.”).) Class Counsel specializes in representing plaintiff-employees in collective and class 15 actions under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and various state wage-hour laws. (Id. at ¶ 16 2.) However, the vast majority of Class Counsel’s prior experience was related to wage-hour 17 issues in the private sector. (Id. at ¶ 3.) Since this case involved public-sector employees, Class 18 Counsel identified some unique and significant challenges to bringing a legal action against the 19 state of Nevada. (Id. at ¶ 7.) There were two (2) challenges in particular that concerned Class 20 Counsel: (1) the defense of sovereign immunity and (2) the availability of Nevada state law
 21 claims. (Id. at ¶ 8.) Indeed, Class Counsel was made aware of at least one other Nevada law
 22 firm that specialized in representing Nevada public employees that did not believe Nevada
 23 public employees could assert a claim for damages against the State because of sovereign 24 immunity. (Id. at ¶ 8.) Ultimately, Class Counsel disagreed with the other law firm’s legal 25 assessment and decided to pursue this action despite the legal uncertainties. (Id. at ¶ 9.)

26 B. The Contingency Fee Attorney-Client Agreement

27 The Named-Plaintiffs and Class Representatives signed attorney-client agreements with 28 Class Counsel. (Id. at ¶ 9.) As set forth in the attorney-client agreement, Class Counsel agreed

1 to represent the Named-Plaintiffs and all potential opt-in plaintiffs and putative class members 2 on a pure contingency fee basis, meaning that Class Counsel would not receive any 3 compensation for the hours invested unless and until they obtained a recovery in the action, and 4 Class Counsel would fully fund the litigation. (Id.) In exchange for Class Counsel agreeing to 5 pursue this case on a pure contingency fee basis, with the risk that Class Counsel would invest 6 labor and actual costs without any recovery or reimbursement, the Named-Plaintiffs agreed that 7 Class Counsel could seek attorneys' fees of up to thirty-five percent (35%) of any potential
8 class or collective action recovery. (Id.) The Named-Plaintiffs also agreed that Class Counsel 9 would be entitled to reimbursement for all costs and expenses incurred in connection with 10 prosecuting the claims asserted in this litigation. (Id.)

11 C. Opt-In Plaintiff Issues

12 Class Counsel promptly moved for conditional certification under the FLSA so that 13 potential opt-in plaintiffs would receive notice of this action and have an opportunity to join.
14 (Id. at ¶ 12; ECF No. 7.) After the Court granted conditional certification, Class Counsel 15 contracted and paid for a third-party company to administer the FLSA notification process. (Id.
16 at ¶ 12.) Class Counsel worked closely with the third-party administrator to notify all members 17 of the potential opt-in collective group. In doing so, Class Counsel became aware that certain 18 potential opt-in plaintiffs were omitted from the collective group list that was provided by 19 Defendant, requiring Class Counsel to identify the missing individuals and mail out a second 20 notice. (Id. at ¶ 12.)

21 Persons who filed consents to join in this action ("Opt-In Plaintiffs") and other COs who 22 were interested in joining the action contacted Class Counsel repeatedly for updates and to 23 provide information about their work situations. Class Counsel created a case page on their 24 website to provide updated information to the Opt-In Plaintiffs and putative class members.
25 Class Counsel also set up a bulk email list to relay information about important case updates to 26 Opt-In Plaintiffs. By opting-in to this action, Opt-In Plaintiffs agreed to: "(1) designate 27 Plaintiffs as your agents to make decisions on your behalf concerning this lawsuit; (2) the 28 method and manner of conducting this lawsuit; (3) enter into an agreement with Plaintiffs'

1 counsel concerning attorneys' fees and costs; and (4) all other matters pertaining to this 2 lawsuit.” (ECF No. 48 at p. 6. (emphasis added)). Accordingly, all Opt-In Plaintiffs have 3 agreed to the same contingency fee attorney-client agreement that was agreed to by the Named-4 Plaintiffs, as described above.

5 D. Challenges to the Pleadings

6 There were numerous challenges to the pleadings that, although not as concerning to 7 Class Counsel as some of the other legal hurdles, presented significant work and challenges.
 8 Rather than seek an immediate motion to dismiss this action, Defendant initially answered
 9 Plaintiffs' complaint and proceeded to vigorously defend its view of the facts—i.e., that the pre-10 and post-shift unpaid activities did not happen—in discovery. Defendant did not file its first 11 dispositive motion for judgment on the pleadings until almost two years after the case was filed 12 and after a significant amount of discovery had taken place. Defendant filed its initial motion 13 for judgment on the pleadings on the grounds that Plaintiffs had not met the Landers federal 14 court pleading standard. (ECF No. 86.) As identified by Plaintiffs in their opposition to 15 Defendant's motion, this was not in dispute because the case was initially filed in state court
 16 where there is no Landers pleading standard. (ECF No. 87.) Nevertheless, the Court agreed 17 with Defendant but gave Plaintiffs leave to amend the complaint to add additional facts pursuant 18 to Landers. (ECF No. 94.)

19 Plaintiffs subsequently filed a First Amended Complaint (“FAC”) with extremely 20 detailed facts about the shift, job position, and duties that each particular Named Plaintiff
 21 worked. (ECF No. 95.) Despite the extreme detail concerning the nature of Plaintiffs' claims 22 provided in the FAC, Defendant moved to dismiss Plaintiffs' complaint on the grounds that the 23 allegations did not assert a claim for compensation under the FLSA or Nevada State law. (ECF 24 Nos. 98, 99.) The Court granted, in part, and denied, in part, Defendant's motion. (ECF No.
 25 166.) Most critically, the Court held that Plaintiffs had sufficiently alleged a claim for 26 compensation under the FLSA. (Id.) The Court, however, granted the motion to dismiss as to 27 Plaintiffs' claims under Nevada State law without prejudice. (Id.) The Court's decision, in this 28 respect, necessitated Class Counsel to re-visit the Nevada state law claims in order to try to cure

1 the perceived deficiencies. Class Counsel subsequently assisted other COs in pursuing 2 grievances against Defendant within the public employee grievance procedure and had filed a
3 motion to amend the complaint to re-allege the state law claims at the time of settlement. (ECF
4 No. 408.)<sup>2</sup> In sum, while the work performed by Class Counsel with respect to the pleadings 5 was not as time-consuming or significant as some of the other hurdles described herein, the 6 work performed in trying to maintain this case and pursue all available relief, including the 7 dismissed state-law claims, on behalf of Plaintiffs and the class was significant.

8 E. Exhaustive Discovery

9 Plaintiffs identified the exhaustive discovery that has taken place in this case in their 10 Motion for Preliminary Approval. (ECF No. 430, at pp. 4-6.) It is worth re-iterating, however, 11 that much of the discovery that was required in this case was the result of the carousel of 12 attorneys that have appeared for Defendant. This case was first defended by deputy attorney 13 generals (DAG) from the State of Nevada’s Attorney General’s Office. Written discovery and 14 numerous depositions took place when the DAGs were leading the defense. Approximately two 15 years after the case was filed and after this first round of discovery, new attorneys from the law 16 firm of Wilson Elser appeared on behalf of Defendant. (ECF No. 84.) These new private 17 attorneys were retained by Defendant’s insurer to provide a defense to the claims asserted in the 18 action. From that point forward, counsel appointed by Defendant’s insurer (“Defendant’s 19 Insurance Counsel”) became the lead attorneys for the Defendant and instantly increased the 20 cost and burden of litigation for Class Counsel. Defendant’s Insurance Counsel immediately 21 petitioned the Court to re-open discovery (successfully despite Class Counsel’s objections) and 22 engaged in scorched earth discovery tactics. Many Plaintiffs and Opt-In Plaintiffs were 23 subjected to duplicative written discovery and depositions. All of Plaintiffs’ experts were 24 deposed and their opinions were the subject of motions to exclude. In sum, rather than confer

25 _____
26 <sup>2</sup> Class Counsel invested significant time and resources in fully exhausting the 27 administrative grievance procedure. Those hours are included in Class Counsel’s time records 28 because they were in furtherance of Class Counsel’s motion for leave the amend the complaint to re-assert the Nevada state law claims.

1 with Class Counsel in an attempt to resolve disputed issues in this action, Defendant’s Insurance 2 Counsel sought to defend this action at all costs regardless of whether the material facts were 3 uncontroverted.

4 F. Sovereign Immunity Hurdle

5 The Court first raised the sovereign immunity issue, sua sponte, on March 1, 2018, 6 meaning that Defendant litigated this action for almost four years without ever raising the issue 7 on its own. But once the Court raised the issue, Defendant decided to aggressively pursue the 8 sovereign immunity defense for the remainder of the litigation.

9 Even though the Court first tipped off Defendant about the sovereign immunity issue, it
10 ultimately agreed with Plaintiffs that Defendant had waived its sovereign immunity from suit 11 by removing this action to the federal forum. Defendant appealed to the Ninth Circuit. Class 12 Counsel ultimately prevailed and the Ninth Circuit issued a published opinion clarifying that 13 when a state voluntarily removes a case to the federal forum it waives its Eleventh Amendment 14 immunity from suit. Walden v. Nevada, 945 F.3d 1088, 1095 (9th Cir. 2019) (“holding that 15 Nevada waived its Eleventh Amendment immunity as to Plaintiffs’ FLSA claims when it 16 removed this case to federal court.”).

17 Shortly after the decision was issued by the Ninth Circuit, Lead Class Counsel received 18 a letter in the mail from Ninth Circuit Court Judge Margaret McKeown, one of the Judges on 19 the panel in Walden. Judge McKeown wrote:

20 Dear Mr. Buck:

21 I wish to commend you on your excellent advocacy during your 22 appearance before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in Donald 23 Walden, Jr.; et al. v. State of Nevada and Nevada Department of 24 Corrections, No. 18-15691 (mandate issued December 31, 2019).
25 The art of advocacy is an integral part of the appellate process and I feel that it is important to acknowledge attorneys who make a special contribution in assisting the court.

Unhappy with the Ninth Circuit’s decision, Defendant filed a petition for rehearing and en banc reconsideration, both of which were denied. Defendant then sought review from the United States Supreme Court. (ECF No. 314.) The United States Supreme Court requested that Plaintiffs respond to Defendant’s writ, which is discretionary with the Court. Ultimately, the Supreme Court denied review. (ECF No. 324.)

On remand from the Ninth Circuit, Plaintiffs and Defendant again filed numerous dispositive motions (motions for summary judgment, motion to decertify the collective group, motion to exclude evidence, etc.). Rather than rule on any of the pending motions, the Court appropriately certified the novel and case dispositive question to the Nevada Supreme Court of whether the State of Nevada had waived its immunity from liability under the FLSA and Nevada state law. (ECF No. 321.)

Lead Class Counsel again wrote the appellate briefing to the Nevada Supreme Court with respect to the certified question presented. In a unanimous opinion (and without oral

1 argument) the Nevada Supreme Court held that the State of Nevada had waived its immunity 2 from liability under the FLSA. Echeverria v. State, 495 P.3d 471, 473 (Nev., 2021) (“[W]e
 3 hold that the plain text of NRS 41.031(1) leaves no room for construction: Nevada has waived 4 the defense of sovereign immunity to liability under the FLSA.”). Approximately 7 years after 5 the start of this case, and after thousands of hours invested in litigating the action (and 6 hundreds of thousands of dollars of expenses), Class Counsel’s interpretation of the sovereign 7 immunity issue had finally been resolved (although Defendant continued to raise the sovereign 8 immunity defense in its subsequent motions for summary judgment (see, e.g., ECF No. 355, at 9 pp. 11-12)). This result was a great benefit for future COs employed by Defendant as well as a 10 great many other state workers who might have claims under the FLSA in the future.

11 G. Summary Judgment Hurdle

12 After clearing the sovereign immunity hurdle, Class Counsel fought to maintain the 13 collective action status of the case and aggressively pursued a summary judgment ruling with 14 respect to the compensability of the pre- and post-shift activities at issue in the case. Class 15 Counsel’s motion for summary judgment on liability was a time-intensive filing that distilled 16 the results of more than seven years of hard-fought and exhaustive litigation efforts. Class 17 Counsel filed 14 exhibits, deposition transcripts from 4 prison wardens, deposition transcripts 18 from 29 COs, and declarations from 12 COs. (ECF Nos. 346, 347, and 348.) The motion for 19 summary judgment precisely identified the dispositive issue presented for the court and 20 supported resolution of that issue with concrete, undisputed facts. This Court ultimately agreed 21 with Class Counsel and held that the pre- and post-shift activities at issue here are compensable
 22 as a matter of law. Importantly, the Court agreed with Plaintiffs that the first compensable work 23 activity marks the beginning of the continuous compensable workday; therefore, any variance in 24 activities performed after reporting for duty with the shift sergeant were immaterial for the 25 purposes of liability and continued collective treatment of this case. (ECF No. 407.) Relatedly, 26 Class Counsel also defeated Defendant’s attempt to decertify the action, have summary
 27 judgment granted in its favor, and to have Class Counsel’s expert who conducted the random 28 survey of COs excluded from the case. The Court’s decision with respect to these various

1 issues is now available for citation by future litigants and represents, at the very least, 2 persuasive authority on compensable time issues under the FLSA. Echeverria v. State of 3 Nevada, 2022 WL 1652450 (D. Nev. 2022).

4 H. State Entity and Insurance Company Hurdle

5 As evidenced above, the fact that this case involved a public entity presented unique 6 challenges for Class Counsel and Plaintiffs. (ECF No. 430-1, at ¶ 28.) Further complicating the 7 involvement of a public entity as the defendant was the existence of potential insurance
 8 coverage to cover the claims asserted. (Id.) Class Counsel was unaware of any potential 9 insurance coverage until after the first round of discovery had concluded and after the failed 10 Zucker mediation. (Id. at ¶¶ 14-15.) Once Defendant invoked its insurance coverage, 11 Defendant's Insurance Counsel appeared in this case to defend the action. (Id.) But 12 Defendant's Insurance Counsel was not interested in resolving the action because Defendant's 13 insurance carrier was disputing coverage (or at the very least withholding a determination as 14 whether there was coverage for the claims asserted). (Id. at ¶ 29.) Therefore, despite their best 15 efforts, Class Counsel struggled to convince Defendant or its insurer to resolve this action 16 without incurring significant legal costs and expenses. (Id.) Class Counsel was finally 17 successful in at least getting Defendant's insurer to participate in settlement discussions after 18 prevailing on the sovereign immunity defense and sending multiple policy demands to 19 Defendant. Getting Defendant's insurer to participate in this case and acknowledge its potential 20 exposure to the damage claims that Plaintiffs asserted was an important factor in reaching the 21 ultimate settlement. Indeed, Defendant's insurer will be contributing $15 million to the total 22 settlement amount.

23 The second major challenge was the accessibility of funds to cover any potential 24 settlement. Because Defendant is a public entity, funds sufficient to cover any reasonable 25 settlement in this action were not readily accessible. The State bureaucracy requires that any 26 settlement over a certain dollar amount proceed through an approval process. (Id. at ¶ 30.) As a 27 result, the Settlement requires that Defendant seek approval of the Board of Examiners (BOE)
 28 and the Interim Finance Committee (IFC) to fund the Settlement. (Id.) At the time of filing this

1 motion, both the BOE and the IFC have approved the funding of the Settlement.

2 III. THE CLASS COUNSEL PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED.

3 This is a hybrid action brought pursuant to federal wage-hour law under the FLSA and 4 Nevada’s public employee wage-hour laws. This Court certified this case as a collective action
 5 on March 16, 2015 (ECF No. 45) and rejected Defendant’s motion for decertification on May 6 24, 2022 (ECF No. 407). This Court re-affirmed its conditional certification decisions in its 7 order granting preliminary approval (“Preliminary Approval Order”) and certified the following 8 class (“Class”) pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure: All current and 9 former non-exempt hourly paid employees, including sergeants and lieutenants, who have been 10 employed by Defendant as COs at any time from May 12, 2011, to December 1, 2022. (ECF 11 No. 432.)

12 The FLSA provides that employee plaintiffs shall recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and 13 costs from the defendant-employer. See 19 U.S.C. § 216(b). FRCP Rule 23(h) also provides 14 that “[i]n a certified class action, the court may award reasonable attorney’s fees and nontaxable 15 costs that are authorized by law or by the parties’ agreement.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h). The sole 16 purpose of the court’s supervision of the attorney fees award in a hybrid collective and class
 17 action settlement proceeding under the FLSA and Rule 23(e) is to make sure that the settlement 18 taken as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2).

19 A. Class Counsels’ Fee Award is Properly Calculated as a Percentage of the 20 Total Settlement Amount.

21 The United States Supreme Court has recognized that “a litigant or lawyer who recovers 22 a fund for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable 23 attorneys’ fee from the fund as a whole.” Boeing Company v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 24 (1980); see Mills v. Auto Lite Co., 396 U.S. 375, 392-93 (1970). This is commonly referred to 25 as the common fund doctrine. The purpose of the common fund doctrine is to avoid unjust 26 enrichment: “those who benefit from the creation of the fund should share the wealth with the 27 lawyers whose skill and effort helped create it.” In re Washington Public Power Supply Sys.

1 Human Resources, Welfare Div. v. Elcano, 794 P.2d 725, 726, 106 Nev. 449, 452 (Nev. 1990)
 2 (recognizing attorney fee recovery under the common fund doctrine under Nevada law); Shuette
 3 v. Beazer Homes Holdings Corp., 124 P.3d 530, 549, 121 Nev. 837, 864–65 (Nev. 2005)
 4 (same). The fairest way to calculate a reasonable fee when contingency fee litigation has 5 produced a common fund—and the way that best promotes efficiency in litigation—is by 6 awarding Class Counsel a percentage of the total fund. See, e.g., Blum, 465 U.S. at 900 n.16; 7 Six Mexican Workers v. Arizona Citrus Growers, 904 F.2d 1301, 1311 (9th Cir. Cal. 1990)
 8 (common fund fee is generally “calculated as a percentage of the recovery”); Paul, Johnson, 9 Alston & Hunt v. Grauly, 886 F.2d 268, 272 (9th Cir. 1989).

10 The percentage-of-recovery method is most appropriate where, as here, the settlement
 11 results in a true common fund. Laguna v. Coverall North America Corp., 753 F.3d 918, 922
 12 (9th Cir. 2014). The ““recognized advantages of the percentage method”” include ““relative 13 ease of calculation,” which reduces the burden on the court, ‘alignment of incentives between 14 counsel and the class,’ and ‘a better approximation of [private] market conditions”” in 15 contingency-fee litigation. Kang v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 17-cv-06220-BLF, 2021 WL 16 5826230, *16 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 8, 2021); see also In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 17 1375 (N.D. Cal. 1989); State of Fla. v. Dunne, 915 F.2d 542, 545 (9th Cir. 1990) (recognizing a 18 “recent ground swell of support for mandating a percentage-of-the-fund approach in common 19 fund cases”); Camden I Condominium Ass’n. v. Dunkley, 946 F.2d 768, 773 (11th Cir. 1991) 20 (“[E]very Supreme Court case addressing the computation of a common fund fee award has 21 determined such fees on a percentage of the fund basis.”). The percentage method has long 22 been the “dominant” method of determining fees in cases like this one, in which counsel’s 23 efforts generated a non-reversionary cash settlement fund in a fixed amount for the benefit of 24 the class. In re Omnivision Techs., 559 F.Supp.2d 1036, 1046 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (Conti, J.)
 25 (citing Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1046; Six (6) Mexican Workers v. Ariz. Citrus Growers, 904 F.2d 26 1301, 1311; Paul, Johnson, Alston, & Hunt v. Grauly, 886 F.2d 268, 272 (9th Cir. 1989)).
 27 Accordingly, Class Counsel’s requested fees and costs should be analyzed under the common 28 fund doctrine.

1           B. Class Counsels’ Request of One-Third of the Total Settlement Fund is Fair,
 2           Adequate, and Reasonable.

3           Fee awards in common fund cases typically range “from 20 to 50 percent of the 4 common fund created.” See Newberg § 14:6 (4th ed. 2008). “No general rule can be articulated 5 on what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually, 50% of the fund is the upper 6 limit on a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not 7 consume a disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat 8 larger percentages are not unprecedented.” Newberg § 14:6 (4th ed. 2008) (“Empirical studies 9 show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards 10 in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”).

11           State and federal courts applying the percentage-of-recovery method frequently award
 12 33-1/3% of the common fund. See, e.g., In re Pacific Enters. Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378-79
 13 (9th Cir. 1995) (affirming award of 33%); Jane Roe, et al. v. SFBSC Management, LLC, et al.,

1 reasonable: (1) the results achieved; (2) the risks of litigation; (3) the complexity of the case,

6 1. The Result Achieved: Substantial Benefit to the Class

7 Of the relevant factors considered, the "most critical factor" in determining appropriate 8 attorneys' fees "is the degree of success obtained." Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 436
 9 (1983); see also In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 942; In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 10 1036, 1046 (N.D. Cal. 2008). Class Counsel respectfully submits that the results achieved in 11 this case, in the form of published precedential and persuasive court opinions and the monetary 12 recovery to the Class, are exceptional and justify the full fee requested. As outlined in the 13 factual section above, Class Counsel has altered the legal landscape with respect to sovereign 14 immunity from suit and sovereign immunity from liability for the benefit of plaintiffs in this 15 particular case and for the general public at large.

16 Moreover, the $55 million non-reversionary cash settlement amount is an outstanding 17 recovery for the Class. See Buck Dec. at ¶¶ 28-33. For instance, if Plaintiffs were only able to 18 prove damages for 20-minutes a day (Defendant believed that this was Plaintiffs' best-case 19 scenario) and were unable to re-assert the Nevada claims to pursue a Rule 23 class, the amount 20 of recovery, including liquidated damages, would only be approximately $22 million for the full 21 3-year statute of limitations. Assuming the same recovery was available for potential ancillary 22 future litigation, the amount of recovery would only be approximately $17 million. Therefore, 23 at 20-minutes per day, the total potential recovery for the current opt-in litigation and potential
 24 unfilled ancillary litigation would total approximately $39 million. The Maximum Settlement

25
 26 <sup>4</sup> While the Ninth Circuit has established a "benchmark" fee of 25% for common fund 27 cases, which a district court may increase or decrease if warranted in a particular case, see Six 28 Mexican Workers, 904 F.2d at 1311 (9th Cir. 1990), there is no such benchmark under Nevada law.

1 Amount of $55 million thus would represent a recovery of 140% of the estimated recovery at 2 20-minutes per shift for all employees. This outcome is exceptional and fully justifies the 3 proposed one-third fee award. See, e.g., Carlin v. DairyAmerica, Inc., 380 F.Supp.3d 998, 4 1020-21 (E.D. Cal. 2019) (recovery of 48% to 80% of estimated gross damages (31% to 51% of 5 estimated net damages) “weighs in favor of a higher-than-benchmark award of fees”; awarding 6 33% of common fund); Lidoderm, 2018 WL 4620695 at *2 (recovery of 46% of estimated gross
 7 damages, or 29% of estimated net damages, justified one-third fee award); In re Heritage Bond 8 Litig., No. 02-ML-1475 DT, 2005 WL 1594403, *19 (C.D. Cal. Jun. 10, 2005) (recovery of 9 36% of estimated gross damages, or 23% of estimated net damages, was an “exceptional result” 10 and justified one-third fee award).

11 When awarding fees, courts routinely rely on the estimated gross recovery per class 12 member, rather than the estimated net recovery, in order to assess the value to the class of the 13 monetary settlement achieved by counsel. See e.g., Carlin, 380 F.Supp.3d at 1020-21;
 14 Lidoderm, 2018 WL 4620695 at *2; Omnivision, 559 F.Supp.2d at 1046; see also Heritage
 15 Bond, 2005 WL 1594403 at *19 (considering both). But even when comparing the Net 16 Settlement Amount of approximately $36 million (i.e., the Maximum Settlement Amount minus
 17 the Class Representative Service Awards, Class Counsel Payment, and the Settlement 18 Administrator fees and costs), the recovery to all members of the Settlement Class is still 92% 19 of the 20-minute per shift exposure. See Buck Decl. ¶¶ 16-19.

20 In addition to the $55 million monetary recovery, this litigation resulted in a change of 21 pay practice. COs are now permitted to seek up to 45 minutes of compensation for the pre and 22 post shift activities that were at issue in this case. See Buck Fee Dec. at ¶ 16 (Exhibit 5) 23 (December 14, 2022, Memorandum). The value of this pay practice change is enormous. It is 24 safe to assume that the value of the pay practice change going forward would be at least equal to 25 the back wages alleged in this action. In other words, Class Counsel created a future benefit of 26 approximately $132 million for COs over the next ten years.

27 In sum, the legal and monetary results from this Settlement are exceptional.
 28 Accordingly, this factor strongly supports Class Counsel’s requested fee of one-third of the 1 common $55 million fund. Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 974 (9th Cir. 2003); Vizcaino, 2 290 F.3d at 1049.

3 2. The Risks of Litigation Were Significant

4 Collective and class action cases such as this are, by definition, inherently complex.
5 Obtaining conditional and class certification, defeating a motion to dismiss, preparing for and 6 participating in mediation, with an eye to developing a class-wide trial plan consistent with due 7 process and maintaining class certification through trial are complex issues that require 8 specialized knowledge and skill. See generally Buck Dec. Additionally, litigating a large class 9 action (i.e., over 5,300 class members) against highly skilled defense counsel at the State of 10 Nevada Attorney General’s Office (“AG’s Office”) and the reputable firm of Wilson Elser 11 requires attorneys who are willing to take substantial risks. In this litigation, the attorneys at the 12 AG’s Office were supported by Defendant’s Insurance Counsel from Wilson Elser, which 13 advertises itself as “the preeminent defense litigation firm in the United States.” Buck Dec. at ¶ 14 15; see <https://www.wilsonelser.com/> (last visited Dec. 6, 2022). There is no doubt that the 15 quality of defense counsel both increased the risks of this case and required Class Counsel to 16 devote more resources to litigating this action. Id. Litigating against experienced counsel, as 17 was the case here, is a factor further justifying the requested fee amount. See e.g., In re Nat’l
18 Collegiate Athletic Ass’n, 2017 WL 6040065, at *3; De Mira v. Heartland Employment Service, 19 LLC., 2014 WL 1026282, at *2 (N.D. Cal. 2014) (“Defendant was represented by an 20 experienced and well-resourced defense firm. Had Class Counsel failed to vigorously prosecute 21 this case, it is unlikely that this settlement could have been achieved”); Vizcaino v. Microsoft
22 Corp., 142 F. Supp. 2d 1299, 1303 (W.D. Wash. 2001), aff’d, 290 F.3d 1043 (9th Cir. 2002).

23 The risks involved in this case have been set forth in the motion for preliminary 24 approval and throughout this Motion, including:

- 25 • The risk of a complete loss resulting from the sovereign
- 26 immunity defense;
- 27 • The risk of not maintaining collective and/or class action
- 28 • The risk of not prevailing on the merits that the pre- and post-

shift activities were compensable under federal and/or state law;

- The potential for varying amount of damage recovery;
- The risk of being limited to a 2-year statute of limitations as opposed to the 3-year willfulness statute of limitations; and
- The risk of the good faith defense to the imposition of liquidated damages.

Buck Dec. at ¶¶ 32-33. In short, this case was “extremely risky for class counsel” and the “results achieved were ‘nothing short of remarkable.’” Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1048 (quoting In re Prudential Ins. Co. Sales Practices Litig., 148 F.3d 283, 339 (1998)); see also WPPSS, 19 F.3d at 1301 n.10 (“The stronger the defense, the higher the risk involved ... and the greater the [fee] necessary to compensate plaintiff’s attorney for bringing the action.”); Carlin, 380 F.Supp.3d at 1020 (overcoming “vigorous opposition” of “exceptionally skilled [defense] counsel” warranted above-benchmark fee percentage of 33%). Therefore, the proposed one-third fee is appropriate to reward Class Counsel for undertaking such high-risk litigation and for doing so skillfully and successfully.

3. The Complexity of the Case, the Skill Required and the Quality of the Work Performed

The complexity of this class action is evident from the record. The skill employed and the quality of the work performed by Class Counsel are demonstrated by the outstanding results they achieved and the volume and magnitude of the risks they overcame on their way to the $55 million settlement. Class Counsel brought to bear their extensive prior experience handling wage-and-hour class actions and appellate litigation in the Ninth Circuit and Nevada Supreme Court.

Successful pursuit of a complex class action requires unique skills and abilities. Carlin, 380 F.Supp.3d at 1021; Joh v. American Income Life Ins. Co., No. 18-cv-06364-TSH, 2021 WL 66305, *7 (N.D. Cal. Jan.7, 2021) (citing Omnivision, 559 F.Supp.2d at 1047). That is particularly true in this case. Class Counsel prevailed without the benefit of any factually on-point precedent with respect to Nevada’s sovereign immunity statutes. The case required considerable appellate expertise to achieve the positive appellate results. “[T]he quality of Class

 1299 (9th Cir. 1994).

1 For the past eight years, Class Counsel have prosecuted this case on a contingency fee
 2 basis while advancing all labor and costs for the benefit of the 5,300+ Class Members. Buck
 3 Dec. ¶ 9. In total, Class Counsel have invested approximately $3,558,247.50 of their own labor
 4 and over $168,350.88 in litigation costs with no guarantee whatsoever of any recovery. See 5 Buck Fee Dec. ¶¶ 7, 10. The attorney-client agreements signed by Named-Plaintiffs, and agreed 6 to by Opt-In Plaintiffs as set forth in the FLSA notice, provide that Class Counsel retains the 7 right to seek up to 35% of the total recovery. Buck Dec. at ¶ 9; ECF No. 48 at p. 6. And, the 8 Settlement Notice to Class Members that was approved by this Court includes the amount of 9 fees sought by Class Counsel and provides the opportunity for Class Members to voice their 10 opinion as to the appropriateness of Class Counsel’s fee request prior to final approval.
 11 Accordingly, the contingent nature of the representation justifies the fee requested. See, Torrisi 12 v. Tucson Elec. Power Co., 8 F.3d 1370, 1376-77 (9th Cir. 1993) (“Class counsel, however, 13 have the case on a contingency. Moreover, it is a double contingency; first, they must prevail 14 on the class claims, and then they must find some way to collect what they win.”).

15 5. Awards in Comparable Cases

16 In other wage and hour cases generating comparable legal precedents, class counsel 17 were awarded at least one third of the common fund. See, e.g., Brown v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 18 Case No. 5:09-cv-03339-EJD (attached to the Buck Fee Dec as Exhibit 3) (awarding one-third 19 in fees to class counsel who created a $65 million fund after resolving a precedent setting issue
 20 in the employees’ favor with the California Supreme Court); Rodriguez, 2022 WL 254349 at *6 21 (awarding 33.3% in fees to counsel who obtained reversal of a defense judgment by 22 successfully appealing to the Ninth Circuit, generating a published wage and hour precedent, 23 Rodriguez v. Nike Retail Servs., Inc., 928 F.3d 810 (9th Cir. 2019)); Jane Roe, et al. v. SFBSC 24 Management, LLC, et al., 2022 WL 17330847, at *19 (N.D.Cal., 2022) (awarding 33% of 25 common fund in an 8-year case that involved appellate practice); In re Pacific Enterprises Sec.
 26 Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 379 (9th Cir. 1995) (affirming award of 33% of $12 million common fund); 27 In re Heritage Bond Litig, 2005 WL 1594403, at *18, n.12 (C.D. Cal Jun. 10, 2005) (noting that 28 more than 200 federal cases have awarded fees higher than 30%).

1           C.       The Requested Fee Is Reasonable Under A Lodestar Crosscheck

2           Generally, a district court is “not required” to conduct a lodestar cross-check to assess 3 the reasonableness of a fee award. See In re Google Referrer Header Privacy Litig., 869 F.3d 4 737, 748 (9th Cir. 2017). A district court may, however, elect to perform such a check to 5 confirm “the reasonableness of the percentage award.” Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050. Even a pure
 6 lodestar-based fee award does not require mathematical precision. Mendenhall v. NTSB, 213 7 F.3d 464, 472 (9th Cir. 2000); Kang, 2021 WL 5826230, *17 (“on a lodestar cross-check this 8 Court is not required to flyspeck the time sheets”); Bellinghausen v. Tractor Supply Co., 306 9 F.R.D. 245, 264 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (“lodestar cross-check calculation need entail neither 10 mathematical precision nor bean counting”). “[T]he lodestar calculation can be helpful in 11 suggesting a higher percentage when,” as in this case, the “litigation has been protracted.”
 12 Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050.

13           Class Counsel’s lodestar to date is $3,558,247.50, reflecting 5,090.25 hours of 14 professional time that have been devoted to this case thus far. See Buck Fee Dec. at ¶ 7; 15 Declaration of Christian Gabroy, filed contemporaneously herewith, at ¶ 20. The lodestar 16 figures are based on hourly rates ranging from $150 for legal assistants up to $1,050 for senior 17 partners, which have been accepted by other courts as fair and reasonable.<sup>6</sup> See Buck Fee Dec.
 18 at ¶ 6.

19
 20
 21           <sup>6</sup> These rates fall well within the range approved in other class action litigation in this 22 district in recent years. See, e.g., Kang, 2021 WL 5826230 at *17 (approving rates ranging 23 from $350 for associates to $950 for partners and $1,150 for “experienced appellate counsel”); 24 Lidoderm, 2018 WL 4620695 at *2 (approving as “reasonable” rates “rang[ing] from $350 to 25 $1,050 for partners and senior counsel, $300 to $675 for associates, and $100 to $400 for 26 paralegals and other litigation staff”); In re LendingClub Sec. Litig., No. C 16-02627 WHA, 27 2018 WL 4586669, *2 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 24, 2018) (3.5 years ago; approving hourly rates ranging 28 from $275 for paralegals to $1,030 for senior partners as “high but within the range of reasonable”); NCAA, 2017 WL 6040065 at *8 (four years ago; approving partner rates from $578 to $1,035; “of counsel” rates from $450 to $900, associate rates from $350 to $635, “staff and law clerk” rates from $175 to $225; “a reputable survey of billing rates” shows rates of “$200 to $1,080” for “attorneys in California in 2015”).

1 Based on the current combined lodestar, the proposed fee award of $18,333,333.33
 2 represents a multiplier of 4.8. This is eminently reasonable in view of “the substantial risk class 3 counsel faced, compounded by the litigation’s duration and complexity”—factors that would 4 have justified a significantly higher multiplier under both federal and Nevada law. See 5 Vizcanio, 290 F.3d at 1051 n. 6 (citing cases approving multipliers as high as 19.6); Steiner v.
 6 America Broadcasting Co. Inc., 248 Fed. Appx. 780, 783 (9th Cir. 2007) (affirming award with 7 multiplier of 6.85); Gutierrez v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 2015 WL 2438274, at *7 (N.D. Cal.
 8 May 21, 2015) (awarding a multiplier of 5.5 mainly on account of the fine results achieved on 9 behalf of the class, the risk of non-payment they accepted, the superior quality of their efforts, 10 and the delay in payment).<sup>7</sup>

11 Between now and the close of settlement administration, Class Counsel anticipate 12 devoting additional hours to such tasks as communicating with class members, coordinating 13 with the Settlement Administrator and defense counsel, drafting the final approval motion, 14 presenting argument at the final approval hearing, and overseeing post-approval distribution.
 15 See Buck Fee Dec. at ¶ 7. As the litigation continues, the multiplier will become less and less 16 by the end of the litigation. In sum, a lodestar cross-check confirms that a fee award of one 17 third of the common fund is reasonable and appropriate in this case.

18 D. Class Counsel Should Recover Litigation Costs And Expenses Actually 19 Incurred For The Benefit Of The Class

20 In a common-fund settlements, Class Counsel are entitled to recover the reasonable 21 expenses incurred in prosecuting the litigation. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h); Omnivision, 559 22 F.Supp.2d at 1047. Class Counsel also seek reimbursement from the settlement fund in the 23 amount of $168,350.88 for litigation costs advanced during the course of this case. Buck Fee 24 Dec. at ¶ 10. The amount requested for reimbursement is actually less than the amount

25 <sup>7</sup> See also Beckman v. KeyBank, N.A., 293 F.R.D. 467, 481 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (“Courts regularly 26 award lodestar multipliers of up to eight [8] times the lodestar, and in some cases, even higher 27 multipliers”); In re En-ron Corp. Secs., Derivative & ERISA Litig., 586 F.Supp.2d 732, 741
 28 (S.D. Tex. 2008) (multiplier of 5.2); Weiss v. Mercedes-Benz of N. Am., 899 F.Supp. 1297 (D.N.J. 1995) (9.3 multiplier), aff’d, 66 F.3d 314 (3d Cir. 1995).

1 provided for under the Settlement and that was contained in the Notice to the Class, which 2 provided for reimbursement of up to $200,000 in costs. The $31,649.12 difference between the 3 amount initially allocated ($200,000) and the final amount requested ($168,350.88) will be 4 added to the Net Settlement Fund for distribution to the Class.

5 These out-of-pocket expenses were incurred for the Class Members' benefit during this 6 litigation and include filing fees, process service fees, mediator's fees, expert witness fees, 7 travel expenses, photocopies, document imaging, postage, and research. Reimbursement is 8 appropriate for the same reasons attorneys' fees should be paid out of the fund: all beneficiaries 9 should bear their fair share of the costs of litigation, and these are the normal costs of litigation 10 that clients traditionally pay. Reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that were 11 "incidental and necessary to the representation of those clients" is appropriate. Harris v.
 12 Marhoefer, 24 F.3d 16, 19 (9th Cir. 1994). All of the costs sought were necessary in connection 13 with the prosecution of this litigation and were made for the benefit of the Class and should 14 therefore be approved in full.

15 IV. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE AWARDS SHOULD BE 16 APPROVED

17 "[I]ncentive awards that are intended to compensate class representatives for work 18 undertaken on behalf of a class 'are fairly typical in class action cases.'" In re Online DVD- 19 Rental Antitrust Litig., 779 F.3d 934, 943 (9th Cir. 2015). Here, the Settlement provides for 20 $20,000 service payments to each of the Class Representatives, which is not excessive.
 21 "Incentive awards [as opposed to agreements] are fairly typical in class action cases."
 22 Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp., 563 F. 3d 948, 958 (9th Cir. 2009). The $20,000 awards are in 23 line with what is generally awarded in class-action settlements in the Ninth Circuit. See, e.g., 24 Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co., 901 F.Supp. 294, 299 (N.D. Cal. 1995) (approving $50,000 25 participation award to one named plaintiff for 10 years of active litigation ); Glass v. UBS 26 Financial Services, Inc., 2007 WL 221862, at *17 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2007) (approving $25,000 27 enhancement to each of four named plaintiffs for seven months of litigation.).
 28

1 Here, Class Representatives have been active participants in the litigation. See Buck Fee
 2 Dec. at ¶¶ 12-13; Declarations of Donald Walden Jr. (ECF No. 430-2), Nathan Echeverria (ECF
 3 No. 430-3), Aaron Dicus (ECF No 430-4), Brent Everist (ECF No. 430-5), Travis Zufelt (430-
 4 6), Timothy Ridenour (ECF No. 430-7), and Daniel Tracy (ECF No. 430-8). They have 5 expended numerous hours on behalf of the Class, conferring with counsel, responding to 6 discovery, sitting for depositions, participating in mediation, and attending court proceedings.
 7 Id. These Class Representatives have dedicated over 8 years to the case and have consistently 8 demonstrated a selfless desire to always look out for the interest of the Class above their own.
 9 Id. Their involvement has not been without risk. Id. The Class Representatives have been and 10 will be publicly associated with this lawsuit, for better or for worse. Id. They took a great risk 11 on behalf of themselves and the Class to come forward with this lawsuit. Accordingly, the 12 service awards requested should be approved.

13 V. CONCLUSION

14 For all the reasons set forth above, Class Counsel and Class Representatives respectfully 15 request that: (i) Class Counsel’s fee request of one third of the common fund that was generated 16 for the Class and costs that were actually incurred and paid in this litigation be fully approved, 17 and (ii) Class Representatives’ request for service awards, be fully and finally approved by the 18 Court.

1 I, Joshua D. Buck, hereby declare and state as follows:

2 1. The following declaration is based upon my own personal experience, 3 observation, and knowledge. I could competently testify to the statements contained herein if 4 called to do so.

5 2. I previously submitted a declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ motion for 6 preliminary approval of the collective and class action settlement (“Motion for Preliminary 7 Approval”) on November 11, 2022. See ECF No. 430-1 (hereinafter referred to as “Buck 8 Declaration in support of Motion for Preliminary Approval”). In that declaration I set forth my 9 experience and qualifications in handling collective and class action wage-hour cases. I also set 10 forth the necessary background of this litigation and the resulting settlement so the Court could 11 be fully apprised of all the complex and complicated challenges that were presented throughout 12 this litigation. I will not repeat the statements contained in the Buck Declaration in support of 13 Motion for Preliminary Approval, but those statements are incorporated herein.

14 3. I am submitting this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ motion for approval of 15 class counsel payment and class representative service awards for three principal reasons: to 16 demonstrate: (I) the amount of time that my firm has invested in this litigation since its inception
17 (e.g., my firm’s lodestar), (II) the amount of costs that my firm has paid out-of-pocket to litigate
18 this action, and (III) the involvement of Named-Plaintiffs and Class Representatives throughout 19 this case.

20 I.

21 MY FIRM’S LODESTAR

22 4. My firm agreed to represent Plaintiffs in this case on a pure contingency fee basis.
23 The retainer agreement between my firm, Plaintiffs, and opt-in Plaintiffs, is that my firm would 24 be entitled to seek up to 35% of any recovery for attorneys’ fees and that my firm would recover 25 all litigation costs that were expended in pursuing the case.

26 5. Despite taking on this case on a pure contingency fee basis, my firm recorded the 27 hours that were expended in furtherance of this litigation. Over the course of the litigation, my 28 firm has used two different time keeping systems: (1) Time and Billing with Thompson Reuters,

1 and (2) timekeeping with Clio practice management. My firm no longer uses Time and Billing
 2 but has transitioned to using the Clio practice management system for all our firm management, 3 including timekeeping. My firm saved all our hourly time entries that were entered into the Time
 4 and Billing system and uploaded those hours into the Clio system. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 5 are the time entries from Clio.

6 6. As evidenced by Exhibit 1, my firm (myself, Partner Mark Thierman, Associate 7 Leah Jones, Associate Joshua Hendrickson, and our support staff) has invested significant 8 attorney and professional staff time in this case from investigation through settlement. Class 9 Counsel’s reasonable hours detailed in Exhibit 1 are summarized in the chart below:

Class Counsel’s Hourly Rates and Experience
Name	Position	Bar Admission	Experience	Hours	Rate	Lodestar
Mark R. Thierman	Partner	1976	46 years	68.6	$1,050	$72,030
Joshua D. Buck	Partner	2008	14 years	2,457	$950	$2,334,150
Leah L. Jones	Associate	2011	11 years	754.9	$675	$509,557.50
Joshua R. Hendrickson	Associate	2009	13 years	687.6	$675	$464,130
Jennifer Edison-Strekal<sup>1</sup>	Paralegal	NA	3 years	557.8	$250	$139,450

25 _____
 26 <sup>1</sup> Mrs. Edison-Strekal’s position was previously occupied by Tamara Toles. Ms. Toles 27 worked on this litigation when she was employed by my firm. Ms. Toles recorded her hours in 28 the Time and Billing application. Ms. Toles’ hours that were recorded in Time and Billing have been included under Mrs. Edison-Strekal’s Clio records. I can provide Ms. Toles’ Time and Billing records should this Court desire.

Brittany Manning	Paralegal	NA	11 years	11.9	$250	$2,975
Araceli Garcia<sup>2</sup>	Legal Assistant	NA	2 years	239.7	$150	$35,955
Totals				4, .5		3,55 ,24 .5

7. As Exhibit 1 and the summary chart demonstrate, the total lodestar for my firm is $3,558,247.50 and we have expended 4,777.5 hours working on this case. The attorneys at Gabroy Messer Law Office have a lodestar of $237,692.25 and have expended 312.75 hours working on this case. Therefore, Class Counsel’s requested fee represents a 4.8 multiplier on Class Counsel’s lodestar. Further, based on my experience in comparable wage and hour class and collective actions, Class Counsel can reasonably expect to expend additional and substantial hours of attorney and staff time during the settlement administration and distribution process, without any additional compensation, which even further reduces the reasonable multiplier on Class Counsel’s time.

8. Class Counsel have thoroughly reviewed the time entries recorded in this case and, exercising billing judgment, have removed any time for non-essential tasks or duplicative efforts. All of the time our law firm has submitted to the Court for compensation: (i) is of the kind and character that Plaintiffs’ counsel would normally bill to paying clients, (ii) is time that counsel normally tracks and seeks to be paid for at the conclusion of successful contingency litigation, and (iii) added value to the case and was reasonably necessary to give the Class Members the best possible chance for a favorable outcome.

<sup>2</sup> Mrs. Garcia’s position was previously occupied by Toketee Reid. Mrs. Reid worked on this litigation when she was employed by my firm. Mrs. Reid recorded her hours in the Time and Billing application. Mrs. Reid’s hours that were recorded in Time and Billing have been included under Mrs. Garcia’s Clio records. I can provide Mrs. Reid’s Time and Billing records should this Court desire.

1 9. Class Counsel’s requested hourly rate is reasonable and consistent with the rates 2 of attorneys of comparable skill, reputation and experience performing work of comparable 3 complexity in federal courts across the country. Based upon my litigation experience and billing 4 judgment, I believe that the hours expended were reasonable.

5 II.
6 MY FIRM’S COSTS

7 10. My firm records all of our case expenses contemporaneously, with the assistance
8 of a contract bookkeeper, Erinn Miller, with the QuickBooks system. I asked Mrs. Miller to run 9 a report on our most current expenses incurred in this action dating back the beginning of the 10 case. I have attached a true and correct copy of my firm’s expense report as Exhibit 2. As 11 demonstrated by Exhibit 2, Class Counsel has incurred $168,350.88 in expenses during the 12 course of this 8-year litigation, which includes, but is not limited to, expenses for traveling to 13 perform prison site visits, the costs of a videographer to record the CO ingress and egress process, 14 depositions costs, appellate costs, expert fees and costs, research fees, etcetera. I believe that all 15 these expenses were reasonably expended and necessary in furtherance of this litigation and the 16 resulting settlement.

17 11. My firm primarily operates on a contingency fee basis. I have agreed to accept 18 and litigate many cases that have ultimately been unsuccessful. Because most of the cases that 19 I litigate are collective and/or class action cases, I am frequently required to pay significant costs 20 in furtherance of the litigation and never recover those costs. I am also not able to recover the 21 amount of attorney time invested in these losing cases. For instance, I recently lost class 22 certification in a case where my firm incurred $187,490.37 in costs and slightly over $1 million
23 in an hourly lodestar that I will not be able to recover in a hybrid FLSA and state wage hour off 24 the clock case involving a large hospital system. See Darling v. Dignity Health, Dignity
25 Community Care, 2022 WL 1601408 (N.D. Cal., 2022). I also recently lost a long-standing case 26 against a well known Reno resort and casino that went up to the Nevada Supreme Court where 27 my firm incurred $69,588.43 in costs and $430,620.50 in an hourly lodestar in the that I will not 28 be able to recover. See Martel v. HG Staffing, LLC, 519 P.3d 25 (Nev., 2022). Earlier this year

1 my firm was also unsuccessful against the State of Nevada’s Department of Employment, 2 Training and Rehabilitation (DETR) for alleged unpaid unemployment compensation during the 3 COVID pandemic. My firm incurred $8,140 in costs and $1,146,077 in an hourly lodestar that 4 we were unable to recover. While my firm was ultimately successful in this action, as evidenced 5 immediately above, this is not always true. Hourly-paid attorneys get compensated for all their 6 hours that they invest in a case. Contingency fee attorneys do not. Contingency fee attorneys 7 must be successful in more case than they are unsuccessful or they will cease to exist.

9 NAMED-PLAINTIFF CLASS REPRESENTATIVE INVOLVEMENT

10 12. Named-Plaintiffs and Class Representatives Donald Walden Jr., Nathan 11 Echeverria, Aaron Dicus, Brent Everist, Travis Zufelt, Timothy Ridenour, and Daniel Tracy, 12 have all taken a substantial risk in deciding to be publicly known as the lead named-plaintiffs in 13 this action. It is undeniable that lead named plaintiffs are saddled with significant risk and 14 responsibilities that are not experienced by other opt-ins and/or class members. Most 15 significantly, lead named plaintiffs are always subjected to the most taxing discovery and 16 litigation requirements. This case was no exception. All Class Representatives were required to 17 respond to multiple rounds of written discovery and were required to sit for depositions (some 18 of whom were required to sit twice). In addition, all of the Class Representatives participated, 19 in person, in the full day mandatory settlement conference with Judge Denny. Many of the Class 20 Representatives also participated in the prison site visits and narrated the ingress and egress 21 process for the videographer that I retained.

22 13. In addition to the obvious litigation work that was performed, these Class 23 Representatives were also the lead contacts for other opt-in plaintiff and class members who 24 were interested in the litigation. Class Representatives relayed information about the action to 25 colleagues who were supportive of the action and defended themselves and the case against 26 attacks from their colleagues who were against the action. In sum, these Class Representatives 27 tirelessly worked on behalf of others in order for this Settlement to be reached. Because they 28

1 were integral and instrumental in achieving the $55 million Settlement, it is my opinion that their 2 dedication should be recognized and that their service awards should be approved.

4 SIMILAR FEE AND COST AWARDS

5 14. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of the final approval award
6 and order granting attorneys’ fees and costs in Brown v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., Case No. 5:09-
7 cv-03339-EJD. The Brown action was litigated by a local Reno attorney, Charlie Jones. See 8 <https://cjoneslawfirm.com/>. Much like this case, Mr. Jones litigated the Brown action up to the 9 California Supreme Court and, after receiving a favorable ruling with respect to the interpretation
10 of seating requirements under California’s wage laws, was able to resolve his wage-hour action 11 against Wal-Mart for $65 million. Mr. Jones successfully petitioned the Northern District of 12 California for a fee award of one-third of the $65 million common fund that was created. See 13 Exhibit 3.

14 15. Attached hereto as Exhibit 4 is a true and correct copy of the final approval order 15 in Neville v. Terrible Herbst, Case No. A-15-728134-C, Dept. 14. I litigated the Neville action.
16 Much like this action, the Neville action was a long and tough-fought affair. The case went 17 before the Nevada Supreme Court where I prevailed on the private right of action issues. See 18 Neville v. Eighth Judicial District Court in and for Cnty. of Clark, 133 Nev. 777 (Nev., 2017). I 19 also successfully opposed Defendant’s motion for summary judgment on liability and damages
20 and prevailed on a motion for class certification. Ultimately, the case settled for a total settlement 21 amount of $3.2 million and the court awarded my firm one-third of the total settlement amount 22 in attorneys’ fees.

25 16. Attached hereto as Exhibit 5 is a true and correct copy of the recent pay practice
26 change that resulted from this litigation. As demonstrated by the memorandum dated December 27 14, 2022, all correctional officers (“COs”) employed by Defendant the State of Nevada Ex Rel.

Final Approval Award and Order Granting Attorneys' Fees and Costs

EXHIBIT

1 method of notice, and setting a date and time for a fairness hearing to consider whether the Settlement
2 should be finally approved by the Court pursuant to Rule 23(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
3 as fair, adequate, and reasonable (the “Preliminary Approval Order” (ECF No. 292));

4 WHEREAS, the Preliminary Approval Order further directed that all Settlement Class
5 Members be given notice of the Settlement and of the date for the final fairness hearing;

6 WHEREAS, the Court has received the declaration and supplemental declaration of 7 Melissa Meade from Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“PSA”) attesting to the provision of notice, 8 class member claims, pay period disputes reported by class members – and resolution of such disputes
9 – all in substantial accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order;

10 WHEREAS, not a single objection to this settlement has been filed and only 335 11 Settlement Class Members (0.33% of the Class) timely filed a request for exclusion; and

12 WHEREAS, the Court having conducted a Final Fairness Hearing on March 28, 2019
13 (the “Settlement Approval Hearing”), and having considered the arguments presented, all papers filed 14 and all proceedings had therein;

15 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

16 1. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action, all Settlement Class 17 Members, the State of California and Defendant. In accordance with Rules 23(d) and 23(e) of the 18 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of due process, all members of the Settlement 19 Class have been given proper and adequate notice of the Settlement. Based upon the evidence 20 submitted by the parties to the Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Agreement, the declaration of 21 the Settlement Administrator regarding the notice program and responses received thereto, the 22 arguments of counsel, and all the files, records and proceedings in this case, the Court finds that the 23 Notice and notice methodology implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and the Court’s 24 Preliminary Approval Order: (a) constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (b) 25 constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise members of the 26 Settlement Class of the pendency of the litigation, their right to object to the Settlement, and their right 27 to appear at the Settlement Approval Hearing; (c) were reasonable and constituted due, adequate and 28

1 sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice; and (d) met all applicable requirements of the Federal 2 Rules of Civil Procedure, and any other applicable law.

3         2. The Court also finds and determines that the parties have satisfied the requirements of 4 the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq., and the Class
5 Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b), by serving the Labor and Workforce Development 6 Agency and appropriate governmental authorities with timely notice of the Settlement.

7         3. The deadline for Settlement Class Members to exclude themselves from the Settlement, 8 submit Claim Forms, or object to the Settlement shall be March 28, 2019. There will be no further 9 additions to the Class after March 28, 2019. The Court approves the requests of the two former opt-10 out individuals to participate in this Settlement.

11         4. The Settlement Agreement in this action warrants final approval pursuant to Rule 23(e)
12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure because it resulted from vigorously contested litigation, 13 extensive discovery and motion practice, and extensive good-faith arm's length negotiations between 14 the parties, and it is fair, adequate, and reasonable to those it affects.

15         5. The Final Approval Motion is hereby GRANTED, and the Settlement as set forth in 16 the Agreement is hereby APPROVED as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the public interest, and the 17 terms of the Agreement are hereby determined to be fair, reasonable and adequate, for the exclusive 18 benefit of the Settlement Class Members. The Parties are directed to consummate the Agreement in 19 accordance with its terms.

20         6. The Court APPROVES the Seating Program contained at §5.1 through §5.1.8 of the 21 Agreement and payment of the Gross Settlement Amount of $65,000,000 in accordance with the terms 22 of the Agreement.

23         7. The Court finds and determines that the Settlement Payments to be paid to the 24 Settlement Class Members as provided for by the Agreement are fair and reasonable. The Court hereby 25 gives APPROVES and ORDERS the payment of those amounts to be made to the Settlement Class 26 Members out of the Net Settlement Amount in accordance with the Agreement.

27         8. The Court finds and determines that payment to the Labor and Workforce Development 28

1 Agency of its share of the settlement of civil penalties in this case is fair, reasonable, and appropriate.
2 The Court hereby APPROVES and ORDERS that the payment of that amount be paid out of the Net
3 Settlement Amount in accordance with the Agreement.

4 9. The Court APPROVES payment of the Enhancement Payments to Class
5 Representative Kathy Williamson in the amount of $25,000 and Plaintiff Nisha Brown in the amount 6 of $5,000, in accordance with the terms of the Agreement.

7 10. The Court APPROVES payment of Attorneys' Fees of $21,664,500 and Litigation 8 Expenses of $312,000 to Class Counsel (Jones Law Firm and Righetti Glugoski P.C.) in accordance 9 with the terms of the Agreement. The requested award of $21,664,500 in attorneys' fees is reasonable 10 under the percentage of the common fund method, as it is consistent with Ninth Circuit authority. See,
11 e.g., In re Pacific Enterprises Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 379 (9th Cir. 1995) (affirming award of 33% 12 of $12 million common fund); In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 1375 (awarding 32.8% of 13 $3.5 million common fund); In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 460 (9th Cir. 2000)
14 (affirming award of 33.3% of $1.725 million); see also Bennett v. Simplexgrinnell LP, 2015 WL
15 12932332 at *7 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (awarding fee of 38.8% plus costs of $4,900,000 settlement fund); 16 In re Heritage Bond Litig., 2005 WL 1594403, at *18, n.12 (C.D. Cal Jun. 10, 2005) (noting that more 17 than 200 federal cases have awarded fees higher than 30%).

18 The Court reaches this conclusion based on the following: (1) attorney fees awards issued in 19 similar suitable seating settlements alleging the same claims alleged here which have been approved 20 by other courts (see Order Awarding Attorneys Fees in Enombang v. Target Corporation, Alameda 21 County Superior Court Case No. RG17853948 [awarding attorneys' fees equal to 40% of the 22 $9,000,000 common fund in similar suitable seating action]; Order Awarding Attorneys' Fees in Hall
23 v. Rite Aid, San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2009-00087938 [awarding attorneys' fees equal to 24 40% of the $18,000,000 common fund in similar suitable seating action]); (2) the fact that the result 25 achieved in this case – the establishment of a common fund of $65,000,000 created for the State of 26
27
28

1 California and 100,362 Class Members – is excellent and exceeds the result achieved in other similar 2 suitable seating cases; (3) the fact that this settlement includes the establishment of a Seating Program
3 through which Walmart will now provide seats to its front-end cashiers in the State of California
4 thereby benefiting the more than 20,000 currently employed Class Members, as well as those cashiers
5 who will be employed in the future (see Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 974 (9th Cir. 2003)
6 [confirming that it is appropriate for Courts consider the value of injunctive or “forward looking” relief 7 in either increasing the value of the common fund created, or “as a ‘relevant circumstance’ in 8 determining what percentage of the common fund class counsel should receive as attorney’s fees, 9 rather than as part of the fund itself.”]); (4) the novelty and complexity of the issues involved in this 10 litigation; (5) the fact that Class Counsel have litigated this case on a pure contingency fee basis for a 11 decade with no guarantee of any recovery whatsoever and have invested a substantial amount of time 12 and money for the benefit of the Class Members and the State of California (see In re Washington 13 Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig., 19 F.3d 1291, 1299 (9th Cir. 1994)); (5) the substantial risks 14 involved in this case and the fact that Class Counsel successfully opposed two separate Motions for 15 Judgment on the Pleadings and Walmart’s Cross Motion for Summary Judgment; (6) the fact that 16 Class Counsel have agreed to continue to perform work on this case, on an as needed basis, for a period
17 of up to twelve (12) additional years; and (7) the fact that not a single class member, nor the California
18 LWDA, objected to the amount of fees sought after being notified of the amount requested.

21
22 The requested fee award is also reasonable under the lodestar method. The Court has reviewed 23 the hours devoted to this case by Class Counsel and their hourly rates and concludes that they are 24 reasonable. The resulting multiplier of roughly 2.2 is reasonable in light of the time and labor required, 25 the difficulty of the issues involved, the requisite legal skill and experience necessary, the excellent
26 results obtained for the Class, the contingent nature of the fee and risk of no payment, and the range 27 of fees that are customary. Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002) (approving 28

1 multiplier of 3.65 and citing recent cases approving multipliers as high as 19.6); Steiner v. Am. Broad.
2 Co., 248 Fed. Appx. 780, 783 (9th Cir. 2007) (affirming award with multiplier of 6.85); see also 3 Newberg, Attorney Fee Awards, § 14.03 at 14-5 (1987) (“multiples ranging from one to four are 4 frequently awarded in common fund cases when the lodestar method is applied.”); Gutierrez v. Wells
5 Fargo Bank, N.A., 2015 WL 2438274, at *7 (N.D. Cal. May 21, 2015) (awarding a multiplier of 5.5 6 mainly on account of the fine results achieved on behalf of the class, the risk of non-payment they 7 accepted, the superior quality of their efforts, and the delay in payment).

10 11. The Litigation is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE and without costs to any 11 Party, other than as specified in the Settlement Agreement and this Order.

12 12. In consideration of the Seating Program and Net Settlement Amount provided under 13 the Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, each of the Releasing Settlement Class 14 Members and the State of California shall, by operation of this Judgment, have fully, finally, and 15 forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Settlement Class Member Released Claims against 16 Walmart in accordance with Section 13 of the Agreement, the terms of which are incorporated herein
17 by reference, shall have covenanted not to sue Walmart with respect to all such Settlement Class 18 Member Released Claims and shall be permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing, 19 prosecuting or asserting any such Settlement Class Member Released Claim against Walmart.

20 13. This Judgment is the Final Judgment in the suit as to all Settlement Class Member 21 Released Claims.

22 14. Without affecting the finality of this Judgment in any way, this Court retains 23 jurisdiction over (a) implementation of the Settlement and the terms of the Settlement Agreement; (b) 24 distribution of the Class Settlement Amount, the LWDA Payment, the Enhancement Payments and 25 the Attorneys’ Fees and Litigation Expenses Amount; and (c) all other proceedings related to the 26 implementation, interpretation, administration, consummation, and enforcement of the terms of the 27 Settlement Agreement and the Settlement, and the administration of Claims submitted by Settlement 28 Class Members. The time to appeal from this Judgment shall commence upon its entry.

16. This Court finds that there is no just reason for delay and expressly directs Judgment and immediate entry by the Clerk of the Court.

1 On October 14, 2021, this Court considered the Joint Motion for Final Approval of Class
2 Action Settlement. Having fully considered the motion, comments of counsel, and all 3 supporting legal authorities, the Court orders as follows:

4 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- 5 1. The Court adopts the defined terms in the Settlement Agreement.
- 6 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation and personal 7 jurisdiction over the named plaintiff, all settlement class members, and defendants.
- 8 3. The Court confirms as final the following settlement class pursuant to Nev. R.
9 Civ. P. 23(b)(2): “All non-exempt hourly employees employed by Defendant in Nevada at any 10 time from November 24, 2012, through November 20, 2019.”
- 11 4. The Court confirms the appointment of Plaintiff John E. Neville, Jr. as the Class 12 Representative and the enhancement payment of $25,000 to Plaintiff Neville, as set forth in the 13 Settlement Agreement.
- 14 5. The Court confirms the appointment of Thierman Buck LLP as class counsel for 15 the settlement class and approves their requests for attorneys’ fees and litigation costs of 16 $1,066,666.66 and $47,856.13, respectively.
- 17 6. The class notice was distributed to class members, pursuant to this Court’s 18 orders, and fully satisfied the requirements of Nev. R. Civ. P. 23 and all other applicable law.
- 19 7. Pursuant to Nev. R. Civ. P. 23(f), the Court grants final approval to this 20 settlement and finds that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate in all respects, 21 including the attorneys’ fees, costs, and incentive award provisions. The Court specifically finds 22 that the settlement confers a substantial benefit to settlement class members, considering the 23 strength of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses and the risk, expense, complexity, and 24 duration of further litigation and potential appeals. The response of the class supports settlement 25 approval. No class members objected to the settlement and only 12 class members requested 26 exclusion from the settlement. The Court further finds that the settlement is the result of arms-

1 length negotiations between experienced counsel representing the interests of both sides, which 2 supports approval of the settlement in accordance with the standards set forth in the Joint 3 Motion for Final Approval of Settlement.

4 8. The Court finds that as of the date of this Order each and every class member has 5 waived and released claims as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and Notice of Class Action 6 Settlement.

7 9. The Court finds that the settlement administrator costs are fair, adequate and 8 reasonable and that Simpluris, Inc. shall receive 35,623.00 in administrative fees.

9 10. The Court directs the parties to effectuate the settlement terms as set forth in the 10 Settlement Agreement and the settlement administrator to calculate and pay the claims of the 11 class members in accordance with the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

12 11. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the settlement, including 13 the payment of the settlement fund.

MEMORANDUM

Date: December 14, 2022
To: All NDOC Custody Staff
Subject: Muster Entrance/Exit Time

Bottom Line Up Front: Effective December 2, 2022, NDOC custody staff are authorized to include up to 45 minutes per workday for "muster entrance/exit time."

Custody staff may claim time before the start of their shift from the inner door of the gatehouse to the assigned post, and time after their shift ends from the assigned post to the inner door of the gatehouse as overtime. AR 326 Posting of Shifts/Overtime is currently being updated with additional instructions including a new overtime code specifically for this purpose. Until AR 326 is approved by the Board of Prison Commissioners, overtime code 30 should be used along with an explanation of "muster entrance/exit time" on the timesheet note.

Necessary and reasonable muster entrance/exit time, certainly no more than 45 minutes per day even for the farthest posts (unless there are additional unusual circumstances that apply), will be authorized. This applies to all uniformed custody staff from Correctional Officer Trainee to Lieutenants. Supervisors may set controls such as call-ins and video overwatch to ensure accurate timekeeping and payroll.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please discuss with your chain of command.

DECLARATION OF CHRISTIAN GABROY, ESQ.

26
27 I, Christian Gabroy, Esq., hereby affirm under the penalties as provided in 28 U.S.C.
28 § 1746 I have personal knowledge, such statements are true and correct to the best of my

1 knowledge and recollection, and I am competent to testify to the following statements:

2 1. I, along with my partner Kaine Messer, Esq., and our co-counsel at Thierman 3 Buck LLP are attorneys for the Plaintiffs in this proceeding.

4 2. I make this declaration for in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Approval Of 5 Class Counsel Payment And Class Representative Service Awards to demonstrate (1) the 6 amount of time that my firm has invested in this litigation since its inception (e.g., my firm's 7 lodestar) and (2) demonstrate the amount of costs that my firm has paid out of pocket to 8 litigate this action.

9 Background, Experience, Reasonableness, and Customary 10 Fee of the Hourly Fee Rate Proposed

11 3. I am originally from the town of Amarillo, Texas where I went to high school 12 at Tascosa High School and have three brothers and sisters. I was lucky enough to 13 receive a financial scholarship to Tulane University and commenced my undergraduate 14 studies there in 1996. At Tulane University, I double majored in Asian Studies and Political 15 Science with Dual Minors in Japanese and International Relations. I received a scholarship 16 and award for the highest G.P.A. in my Political Science major in my undergraduate 17 studies. I also studied abroad during my junior year in Osaka, Japan where I delivered 18 the commencement address in Japanese for my Junior Year Abroad program at Kansai 19 Gaidai University in Osaka, Japan. I graduated from Tulane University cum laude with 20 Honors in Political Science and Asian Studies in 2000.

21 4. After my graduation from Tulane University, I commenced my legal studies 22 at DePaul University College of Law in Chicago, Illinois. During the summer after my first 23 year of law school and during the first semester of my second year of law school, I clerked
24 at a litigation firm in Chicago, Illinois. During that time period, I did legal clerking duties 25 such as drafting discovery, client interviews, drafting subpoenas, legal memorandums, 26 and legal clerical organization of files.

27 5. During the second semester of my second year of law school, I attended 28 Temple University School of Law in Tokyo, Japan. During that period, I also clerked at TMI

1 Associates, a renowned international law firm located in Tokyo, Japan that has joint 2 ventures with law firms located in China, France, the UK, the United States, Germany, and 3 Saudi Arabia. During this time period, I assisted attorneys regarding international legal 4 issues and also performed translation work.

5 6. Upon returning to Chicago, Illinois, and during my final year of law school, I 6 clerked, on mostly a full-time basis, with the top AV-rated and preeminent trial litigation
7 firm of Anesi, Ozmon, Rodin, Novak & Kohen. Such firm has over fifty years of trial
8 experience including record-breaking jury trial verdicts and settlements. During this period, 9 I assisted attorneys with all facets of trial preparation of complex personal injury cases. I 10 attended depositions, drafted motions, undertook client interviews, attended trials, and 11 legally supported the attorneys at the firm.

12 7. Further, and during my tenure at DePaul University College of Law, I was a 13 member of the Moot Court Appellate Team, a member of the DePaul University College
14 of Law Business Law Journal, I was elected as a Student Board Representative and I 15 earned the CALI Award for the Highest G.P.A. in my Legal Writing class.

16 8. In May of 2003, I graduated from DePaul University College of Law and was 17 thereafter admitted to practice law in the State of Illinois after passing the July 2003 bar 18 exam. Upon being licensed to practice law in Illinois, I was employed as an associate at 19 the Law Offices of Robert Orman in Chicago, Illinois. During my time as an associate there, 20 I practiced in the area of civil trial litigation where I practiced civil litigation in state and 21 federal court. Under the tutelage of Robert Orman, I participated in trials, mediations, 22 settlement conferences, depositions, appeals, and all aspects of civil litigation from client 23 intake until completion of appeals.

24 9. In 2004, I also became licensed to practice in the State of Nevada after 25 successfully passing the Nevada bar exam in February of 2004. I opened my own civil 26 litigation practice, Gabroy Law Offices (now Gabroy | Messer), in Henderson, Nevada in 27 March of 2008 and have continuously been a practitioner since opening my own office in 28 2008. I was a sole practitioner until 2013 when I hired my first associate. I am proud to be

1 a resident of Henderson, Nevada and I run a small office with one associate. Upon opening 2 my office in Henderson, I had no other employees. Now, I have one associate and a small 3 support staff.

4 10. In addition to being a member of the bars of Illinois and Nevada, I am
5 currently a trial bar and regular bar member of the Northern District of the United States
6 District Court of Illinois, a member of the United States Supreme Court bar, and a member 7 of Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals bar. I am also a member of the Nevada District Court.

8 11. I believe that as an attorney, we should also be active in community 9 organizations and associations. I am proud to say that I am a barrister member of the 10 Howard D. McKibben Inn of Court here in Las Vegas, Nevada. I have been a member of 11 the Clark County Bar Association since 2008. I have been a member of the Nevada Justice 12 Association since 2005. Since being in law school, I have been a member of the Phi Alpha 13 Delta law Fraternity. I have been a member on an American Bar Association Advisory 14 Panel and a member of the American Association of Justice since 2003. Since 2014, I 15 have been a member of the National Employment Lawyers Association. I have been a 16 member of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association since 2003 and a member of the 17 Japanese American Society of Nevada. I am a Gold Club Member of the Citizens for 18 Justice with the Nevada Justice Association PAC. I also am a member of the Henderson 19 Chamber of Commerce and a sponsor with the Green Valley High School Football team.
20 Since 2003, I have been a member of the Illinois Bar Association.

21 12. In addition to such associations, I have drafted the publication, "LGBT Rights 22 in the Workplace" which was published in QVegas in 2013. I attempt to provide lectures 23 as much as time permits. In 2016, I presented to the National Business Institute at their 24 Human Resource Law from A to Z on the subject of Hiring, Firing and Disciplining
25 Employees. For the Nevada Justice Association, I also presented topics on the intersection 26 of Personal Injury, Workers Compensation and Employment Law Seminar in 2015. In 27 2014, for the "People's Law School," I presented subjects which were aired covering 28 Workplace Harassment, Family and Medical Leave Act, and Employment Law Overview.

1 For our community's Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health, I presented a 2 seminar on Employee's Legal Rights in regards to their disabled patients in 2014. I have 3 also spoken to UNLV's undergraduate Phi Alpha Delta Pre-law Society in 2011.

4 13. Further, as an attorney, I believe it is our duty to help those less fortunate.
5 As such, I am actively involved in pro-bono work for our community. In 2016, Martindale 6 Hubbell awarded me their highest distinction of being "AV Preeminent," which signifies 7 that my peers ranked me at the highest level of professional excellence for my legal 8 knowledge, communication skills and ethical standards. In 2015, I was awarded the Client
9 Distinction Award from Martindale-Hubbell. Also, in 2016, I was awarded "10 Best in Client 10 Satisfaction" from the American Institute of Personal Injury Attorneys. In 2015, I was 11 awarded the distinction of being a select member of the "50 Hours Club" for my pro bono 12 service. In 2013 and 2014, I was also awarded by the Legal Aid Center of Southern 13 Nevada on the "Pro Bono Honor Roll." In 2014, Desert Companion Magazine selected 14 me as a "Top Lawyer." I always try to take pro bono cases and received an award for over 15 50 hours of pro bono cases. In 2014 and in 2016, I was awarded Avvo's Top Client's choice 16 awards.

17 14. I have over 18 years of continuous practice of litigating civil cases in state 18 and federal court including trying cases to verdict. In addition, I have participated in all 19 levels of civil litigation including drafting and filing of pleadings, conducting discovery in 20 cases, trying cases, and filing appeals. Further, I have attended extended workshops and 21 continuing legal education regarding civil litigation discovery, taking depositions, and trial
22 preparation/trial work. I estimate that I have taken and defended hundreds of depositions 23 in state and federal court proceedings. Further, I have participated in litigating cases on 24 an administrative/arbitral level and have tried cases on an administrative level. I have tried 25 cases in state and federal court.

26 15. During my career, I have personally litigated well in excess of two hundred 27 civil cases with such cases involving personal injury, complex employment discrimination 28 and unlawful employment practices including wage and hour cases, breach of contract

1 claims, deceptive business practices cases, federal civil rights actions including Section 2 1983 actions, and a multitude of common law and statutory violations. I currently am 3 counsel on multiple wage and hour cases on both an individual and class action/collective 4 action basis. Further, I am or have been counsel on various employment class/collective 5 actions in Nevada, Illinois, and New York.

6 16. My partner, Kaine M. Messer, Esq, first joined my firm in 2016. He has been 7 a named partner at our firm since January of 2022. Mr. Messer has worked on numerous 8 employment discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wage-and-hour, and personal injury
9 matters. Such matters have included litigation in our state court, our federal court, as well
10 as administrative matters at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Nevada
11 Equal Rights Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, and our local Employment 12 Security Division, Office of Appeals.

13 17. My partner and I have extensive litigation practice in the wage-and-hour
14 practice since I first opened the firm in 2008. Together we have been certified as class 15 counsel in, inter alia, our federal court in Gaspar, et al. v. Supershuttle Las Vegas, LLC, 16 Case No. 2:15-cv-02149-APG-VCF and Garibay v. Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc.,

4 The Time and Costs Expended by Plaintiffs’ Counsel
 5 was Necessary and Reasonable

6 18. Alongside our co-counsel at Thierman Buck LLP, my firm joined in the 7 agreement to represent Plaintiffs in this case on a pure contingency fee basis. The retainer
 8 agreement is that Plaintiffs’ counsel would be entitled to seek up to 35% of any recovery 9 for attorneys’ fees and that Plaintiff’s counsel would recover all litigation costs that were 10 expended in pursuing the case.

11 19. Attached hereto to this declaration as Exhibit 1 are my firm’s time and 12 expense entries from our practice management system (Clio).

13 20. As evidenced by Exhibit 1, my firm (myself and my partner Kaine Messer) 14 has invested significant attorney staff time in this case from investigation through 15 settlement. Class Counsel’s reasonable hours detailed in Exhibit 1 are summarized in the 16 chart below:

1 case and, exercising billing judgment, have removed any time for non-essential tasks or 2 duplicative efforts. All of the time our law firm has submitted to the Court for compensation
3 is (i) of the kind and character that Plaintiffs' counsel would normally bill to paying clients, 4 (ii) time that counsel normally tracks and seeks to be paid for at the conclusion of 5 successful contingency litigation, and (iii) added value to the case and was reasonably 6 necessary to give the Class Members the best possible change for a favorable outcome.
7 Such hours submitted hereto do not include administrative costs, expenses, our firm's 8 staff's lodestar, multiple previous associate's hours in this matter, and have been 9 significantly and thoroughly reviewed herein to support valuation for the amount requested 10 herein. If any updated or supplemental information is needed, undersigned counsel 11 stands ready to provide such information as undersigned counsel respectfully submits that 12 throughout the years, the time, expense, and recovery sought for the good of our 13 community representing the putative class plaintiffs warrants such relief.

14 22. Class Counsel's requested hourly rate is reasonable and consistent with the 15 rates of attorneys of comparable skill, reputation and experience performing work of 16 comparable complexity. Based upon my litigation experience and billing judgment, I 17 believe that the hours expended were reasonable.

18 23. As Exhibit 1 demonstrates, our firm has incurred no less than $790.70 in 19 costs in this matter.

20 I declare under penalty as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the foregoing is true 21 and correct.

		and denied in part, as described herein. NDOC's motion for summary judgment (ECF No. [355]) is granted in part, but mostly denied, as described herein. NDOC's motion to dismiss claims of all non-participating Plaintiffs (ECF No. [354]) is granted. The following Plaintiffs are dismissed from this case with prejudice: Robert Ahmad; Joseph Baros; Taerick Berry; Debbie Boone-Sharp; Andrew W. Bronk; John Hurt; Alexander Matta; Teresa McCastle; Jeanette Okivelas; Mark D. Poland; Sharon Sommervold; Francisco Bautista; Pamela Bellingier; and Timothy Maguire. NDOC's motion to exclude all evidence from Plaintiffs' experts the Employment Research Corporation (ECF No. [395]) is denied. The Court finds it appropriate to refer this case to a settlement conference before United States Magistrate Judge Craig S. Denney under LR 16-5. If this case does not settle at the settlement conference, the proposed joint pretrial order is due 30 days after the settlement conference. The parties must also contact the Courts Courtroom Administrator when they file the proposed joint pretrial order to arrange for a status conference with the Court. Signed by Chief
